This Dhaka We Live In: Bus Stop Everywhere

A photo report by AKM Mohsin

As a part of our series on the problems faced by the denizens of the major cities and towns of the country this week we focus on the ever-increasing defiance of traffic laws in the capital. A careful look at the pictures below will make it quite clear that unauthorised stopping by the buses to pick up and drop passengers at places other than the designated bus stops adds to the chaos on our city roads. Such flouting of traffic rules is nowadays a most common and regular feature. And such infringements occur everyday right under the noses of the traffic policemen.
