Badruddoza tells Opposition

Resolve issues in JS

CHITTAGONG, Sept 10: Deputy Leader of the Jatiya Sangsad Prof A Q M Badruddoza Chowdhury today made a fervent appeal to the opposition political parties to resolve all national issues through discussion and constitutional means in Parliament, reports BSS.

Prof Chowdhury said issues which could be solved in parliament should not be taken to streets.

Addressing a big public meeting as chief guest at the Laidighi matlan here Prof Chowdhury said, "Dhaka Siege" called by some opposition parties is not the demand of the people and as such they failed to project any people welfare-oriented programmes.

Prof Chowdhury urged the parliament members of the opposition parties to return to Parliament without delay to frame constitutional laws for an impartial and free election in the country.

Held under the auspices of Chittagong city, north and south district chapters of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP), the meeting was chaired by convenor of the city BNP and former mayor Mir Mohammad Nasiruddin.

The Deputy Leader of the House said there was no power which would be able to de-throne a popular and democratically elected government through damaging property, shedding bloods, creating anarchy and violence in society.

He said it was possible to unseat an autocratic and undemocratic government. But, an elected government could only be changed through a fair, free and neutral election, he added.

Explaining the ultimate motive of the opposition parties behind Dhaka siege Prof Chowdhury said it was nothing but cry to grab the power.

He urged the people to reject such destructive programmes socially.
