B Chy urges physicians to spare more time for patients

Deputy Leader of the House Prof AQM Badruddoza Chowdhury yesterday underlined the imperative need for a media campaign to make people conscious of heart diseases, reports UNB.

"Both the print and electronic media can play a vital role in making the people aware of heart ailment and its remedy," he said while referring to the contribution of the media to the anti-smoking campaign.

The renowned physician advised the people to take a walk and a balanced diet everyday to avoid heart diseases. He also urged the physicians to spare more time with patients while attending them.

Prof Chowdhury was speaking at a seminar on the role of the media in the prevention and control of heart diseases organised by Jatiya Press Club at its auditorium in observance of its 40th founding anniversary.

Addressing as special guest, Health and Family Welfare Minister Chowdhury Kamal Ibne Yusuf said more private treatment centres should be opened in the country. The government is doing its best to develop health infrastructure across the country, he added.

"Most people in our country are not aware of heart diseases," he said urging the me-
