Arafat warns against new

COLOMBO, Oct 1: Tamil rebels Saturday condemned the military's attacks on civilians in rebel-held areas in what could be an obstacle tothe talks to end the 11-yearold ethnic war, reports AP.

"Barbaric aerial and artillery attacks on the Jaffna peninsula left 20 civilians dead. This is surely against the spirit of the peace process," the rebels said in a statement from their headquarters in northern Sri

They were apparently referring to Sunday's military operation near Achchuveli town, 310 kilometers (191 miles) north of Colombo, which officials said killed 75 rebels.

"As far as we know, no civilians were killed," said Major Rohan Induruwa, the military spokesman.

Four government officials plan to visit the rebel stronghold of Jaffna on Oct 13 and 14, to discuss ways of ending the Tamil insurrection.

Balasore.

critical.

from New Delhi.

authorities.

Milan.

intensive care.

from Seoul.

expiring October 31

reports from Milan. Italy.

reports from Mexico City.

which has left more then 34,000 people dead.

hold unconditional peace talks.

Jaffna has rejected their demand for a cease fire. The military advised against a cease fire because the rebels could fortify their positions during

Since then, fighting has escalated between the two groups. The rebels blew up a naval ship, killing an estimated

25 sailors. In an apparent retaliation, the military attacked cussed on the alleged discrimination of the minority Tamils by the majority Sinhalese, who control the government.

Tamils make up 18 percent of Sri Lanka's 17 million people.

The ethnic war has fo-that period.

the rebels.

Indian bus mishap claims 35: At least 35 persons were killed and 60 others injured, many seriously, when a Balasore-bound private bus fell from a bridge into a nullah pear Basta, about 35 kms from Balasore yesterday, according to official sources, PTI reports from headquarters hospital here where condition of six was Burundi chooses new president:

Burundi, teetering on the brink of an ethnic bloodbath like this year's mass slaughter in neighbouring Rwanda, chose a Ntibantuganya, a member of the majority Hutu tribe, to replace the head of state killed in the multiple assassination

Gas tanker blast kills 4 in Bombay:

Four people were killed Saturday when they inhaled toxic chlorine gas which leaked from a tanker following a road accident near Bombay, the Press Trust of India (PTI) reports

when the tanker exploded after crashing into another tanker

2 UN aid workers held in Turkey:

Turkish authorities have arrested a Briton and an American working for a UN aid agency after Turkish border guards caught them in possession of ammunition, the Anatolia news

United States and Christopher King from Britain were arrested. The arrest has not been announced by the Turkish

6 die in Milan explosion: An explosion probably caused by leaking gas ripped through an apartment house Friday, killing at least six people, officials said, AP

the bottom floors of the seven-story building in downtown

Ex-Argentine ruler Viola dies: Former dictator and General Roberto Viola, who ruled Argentina for nine months in 1981, died Friday of a heart attack, according

3 Indians killed in Mexico: Three indigenous Indians were killed in a clash between rival religious groups near the bitterly divided southern Mexican town of San Juan Chamula, officials said Friday, Reuter

The killers, members of the area's dominant group of so call Catholic traditionalists, attacked four Evangelical

Christians with guns and sticks in the small village of

Kim to be sworn in this month:

North Korean leader-designate Kim Jong-II will be officially sworn in as state president and party general secretary this month, a southern newspaper said yesterday. AFP reports

Washington correspondent, quoted an official of the Korea-

North American Friendship Association as saying he had been

UN extends mission in Somalia:

The Security Council decided on Friday to prolong the mandate of its 15.000 peacekeepers in Somalia for another month until it reaches a decision on whether to withdraw the abstention from the United States, the Security Council said the mandate would be extended for a period of one month

Hamas activist shot dead in WB:

Israeli troops late Friday shot dead a militant from the Islamic resistance movement Hamas as he was preparing to attack a Jewish settler leader near the tomb of the patriarchs on the

They said Nader Naim Abu Shaher. 20. was slain by troops

West Bank, military sources reported, AFP says from Hebron.

guarding the tomb as he was about to assault Rabbi Milling Levinger. One of the soldiers was stabbed and wounded in the back by Shaher, according to the sources, who said the traps

7 killed in Russian plane crash:

An overloaded cargo plane carrying 19 people and tons of vegetables crashed Frields while trying to take off from an airport in Russia's Far Last, authorities said. Seven people

IAEA resumes tech aid to Israel:

The International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) said on Friday it had resumed technical assistance to Israel, broken

A statement issued by the Vienna-based UN nuclear watchdog said the decision had been taken at the IAEA's

Volcano erupts on Kamchatka:

The Klyuchevksy Volcano in Russia's Far East has come to life, spewing ashes as high as 13 kilometers (8 miles) into the air, the State Ministry for Emergency Situations said

Peninsula, does not endanger any towns, ministry duty officer

America and Asia, the ITAR-Tass news agency reported.

The volcano, in a sparsely populated part of the Kamchatka

But it could pose a threat to airplanes between North annual general conference in Vienna earlier this month.

The twin-engine turboprop Antonov-8 went down at the Chafbukha airport in the Khabarovsk region, said Anatoly Streltsev, a spokesman for the Russian Ministry for then opened fire on him at point blank range.

were killed. AP reports from Moscow off in 1981. Reuter reports from Vienna.

Saturday. AP reports from Moscow

Emergency Situations

Eduard Kozhukov said

In a resolution adopted by a vote of 14 in favour with one invited to attend the inaugural ceremony in Pyongyang.

troops AFP reports from United Nations.

The Han Kyoreh Shinmun, in a dispatch from its Viola, 76, had been in the hospital since Wednesday under to an official source. AFP reports from Buenos Aires.

Ikalumtic about an hour outside San Juan Chamula.

Fifteen other people were injured when the blast wrecked

The agency did not say when Joseph Donahue of the

Some 280 others were taken ill and taken to hospitals

The National Assembly elected acting President Sylvestre new president on Friday. Reuter reports from Bujumbura.

in April that touched off the Rwandan massacres.

on a highway in Thane, near Bombay, PTI said.

agency said, AFP reports from Ankara.

12 injured persons were admitted to the district

Jewish settlements in WB The socialist government TUNIS, Oct 1: PLO chairwhich came to power in man Yasser Arafat warned August immediately offered to Israel on Friday against any ex-' pansion of Jewish settlements The guerrillas agreed even in the occupied territories, though Prime Minister after Israeli officials said Chandrika Kumaratunga to 15,000 homes were to be built along the borders of the West Bank, reports AFP. Speaking to reporters here at the end of a short visit. Arafat said: "any expansion of settlements or confiscation of land for building new (Israeli) homes would be a flagrant violation" of the peace accords signed by Israel and the PLO.

Arafat also said he had met officials of his mainstream Fatah movement in Tunis to discuss plans for holding elections to a Palestinian autonomy council. The PLO leader has said the elections should take place in November.

On Thursday Israeli Housing Ministry officials said the Jewish state was planning to build 15,000 homes along the borders of the occupied West Earlier Prime Minister. Yitzhak Rabin pledged to reconsider his decision to allow new building at the Jewish settlement of Alfe Menashe inside the West Bank.

Rabin made the promise in a cabinet meeting after Palestinians and even some ministers protested.

Arafat asked Tunisia to send transport experts to Gaza durlng a brief stopover in Tunis on Wednesday, when he met President Zine El Abidine Ben

The PLO leader, who was based in Tunis for 12 years, re turned to Gaza for good on July

Another reports from New York says: US Secretary of State Warren Christopher said Friday the six Arab states of the Gulf Cooperation Council have agreed to lift partially their boycott against Israel.

Christopher said the council made a "commitment no longer to enforce secondary and tertiary aspects of the boycott and not to discriminate against US companies."

The United States and the council also pledged to keep sanctions in place against Iraq. "We agreed that we must maintain the sanctions as long as Baghdad fails to carry out all UN resolutions," Christopher said after meeting representatives of the GCC in New York. The GCC groups Oman, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Qatar, Bahrain and the United Arab Emirates. Meanwhile, Israeli Foreign

"The mission condemns

this brutal round of fighting.

which has no clear winner but only losers," the statement is-came three days after a devastating rocket and mortar attack on the war-shattered

Afghan capital that Kabul radio said killed at least 58 people

The radio, which is con trolled by Presiden

Burhanuddin Rabbani, blamed

the attacks on his opponents

led by Prime Minister

Gulbuddin Hekmatyar and northern warlord General fighting was all the more disturbing at a time when Mestiri was consulting prominent independent Afghans on peace ideas in the third phase of his mission that began earlier this

The UN statement said the Abdul Rashid Dostum.

The renewed peace appear sued in Islamabad said.

and wounded 224.

Minister Shimon Peres will have meetings over the weekend with the Foreign Ministers of Arab League members Tunisia and Qatar, an Israeli source at the United Nations confirmed today.

Neither country has diplomatic relations with Israel. All three ministers are in New York for the UN General Assembly.

The source said Peres would discuss with his Tunisian counterpart, Habib Ben Yahia, prospects for establishing low-level diplomatic relations, similar to those recently agree between Israel and Morocco.

The meeting with Qatari Foreign Minister Sheikh Hamad Al-Thanai would focus on enhancing economic links. The sources said this would be the second meeting between the two countries' ministers. who also conferred during last year's general assembly.

India stops sending troops to Rwanda

NEW DELHI, Oct 1: India has indefinitely postponed the departure of its first batch of 300 soldiers to Rwanda for UN peacekeeping due to the plague epidemic in the coun try, an army spokesman said today, reports AFP.

The troops had been scheduled to start leaving from Bombay on Friday when the United Nations faxed a request to the government that the men not be sent until the epidemic was controlled, the spokesman said.

"The soldiers had under gone all health checks and were fit," the spokesman said. "Even in normal circumstances, we do extensive medical checks. But, then, what can we do.'

"We will wait until things clear up," the spokesman added. India is to contribute 800 soldiers for the United Nations Assistance Mission In Rwanda.

China celebrates 45th Nat'l Day

BEIJING, Oct 1: Beijing's parks came alive with martial arts, Peking opera and dance performances all part of China's extravagant celebration Saturday of its 45th National Day, reports AP.

At the gate of Zhongshan Park hundreds of children danced in rows under two giant photographs of senior leader Deng Xiaoping. Reflecting Deng's pivotal place in Communist China's history. one showed him shaking hands with revolutionary leader Mao Tse-tung, the other with President Jiang Zemin. Security was intense. Hundreds of police stood guard in downtown Beijing and admission to testivities at Zhongshan, near the Forbidden City, and seven other parks was by special pass for selected army heroes, ethnic minorities, model workers and overseas Chinese Tiananmen Square was open, however, and jammed with people taking pictures and gazing at enormous dragons, a pagoda and a peacock made of potted flowers.

Diarrhoea kills 50 in Indonesia

JAKARTA, Oct 1: A diarro hea epidemic in Indonesia s part of Borneo island has killed at least 50 people and affected more than 42,000 during the last three months, the Antara News Agency reported today. says Reuter.

Antara said the outbreak in west Kalimantan province had occurred because of a longer than normal dry season and difficulty in obtaining fresh

Dr Sri Astuti, a local health official, said the epidemic has worsened since August but was not unusual for west Kalimantan. She said diarrohea was endemic across the province's vast jungles. A diarrohea epidemic in west Java province this week killed at least six people and cause 1 400 others to seek treatment at hospitals and

Off the Record

Postman jailed for stealing sex devices

LONDON: A postman was sentenced to one year in jail after stealing enough sex aids to fill eight mailbags, reports AP.

Authorities said Michael Hales, a 21-year veteran of the postal service, learned to snot sex packages sent through the mail by identifying their brown paper wrapping and foreign

During a five-year spree. Hales stole inflatable dolls magazines, photographs, condoms and other items, prosecutors said in Kingston Crown Court.

"Your motive was your own sexual gratification," Judge Giles Forester told Hales at Friday's sentencing. "I accept it was not for financial gain. But public confidence in the postal service is necessary and in this case there has been a serious breach of trust."

Hales was caught when his work locker and home in southwest London were searched after a supervisor became suspicious.

Human gene eases Parkinson-like condition in animals

NEW YORK: Rats with a brain condition like Parkinson's disease showed improvement when a human gene was inserted in their brain cells, a finding that suggests a possible treatment for people, reports AP.

The strategy has also shown promise in monkeys, said researcher Dr Matthew During of the Yale University School of Medicine. Parkinson's disease, which robs people of control over their movements, affects millions of people worldwide. Like Parkinson patients, the rats lacked a crucial substance called dopemine in a certain part of their brains. The inserted gene let cells make a substance called tyrosine hy

Scientists used a harmless virus called an adeno-associated virus to deliver the gene into the rat brain cells. The work is reported in the October issue of the journal Nature Genetics by During and colleagues at Yale and elsewhere.

California at San Diego, called the findings encouraging. Studies using other viruses have gotten similar results he said. Scientists will have to compare the results of research with the virus During used against results with other viruses.

At a recent scientific meeting. During reported prelimi nary results showing that the strategy also reduced Parkinson-like symptoms of tremor, rigidity and slow move ment in African green monkeys.

Priest accused of caressing woman

SINGAPORE: A Singapore court has jailed a Roman Catholic priest who touched and caressed a Filipino woman on a Singapore airlines flight, a newspaper reported on Saturday, reports Reuter.

Emmanuel Joseph Arumainayagam, 40, who holds a Sri Lankan passport, was sentenced to one week in jail and fined 500 Singapore dollars (377 US dollars) after he pleaded guilty to using criminal force against her, the Straits Times

Both Arumainayagam and the 22-year-old Filipino boarded the flight from Manila to Singapore on September 23, the paper said. At some point during the flight, Arumainayagam who was sitting two seats away from the woman, reached across the unoccupied seat between them and touched her waist and caressed her arm.

The woman complained to the crew and asked to change her seat. The priest was arrested on arrival at Singapore's Changi Airport.

Space capsule

PARIS: The European Space Agency signed a contract Friday for the French company Aerospatiale to build an experimental space capsule for a test launch without a crew in 1996, reports AP.

The two-seat capsule, called the Atmospheric Reentry Demonstrator or ARD, would cost 2.1 billion francs (dlrs 396 million), according to the contract.

Europe wants "to show its credibility and capacity" tp contribute to the building of spacecraft like the multinational effort to build the orbital station Alpha, said Jean-Marie Luton, director general of the 27-nation European Space

A new Ariane 5 rocket is to launch the capsule in April 1996 from Korou, French Guiana, on the northern coast of South America, site of current Ariane launchings.

The first Ariane 5 is to be launched about six month before the capsule test

The capsule's mission will be a suborbital flight to last about two hours, splashing down in the Pacific. It will test materials and instruments used for thermal protection, reentry and retrieval.

The capsule will play a role in the agency's project to build a Crew Transport Vehicle, though no launch date has been announced. The manned capsule is expected to touch down

Hutus take control of refugee camp in Zaire GOMA, Oct 1: Hutu bandits who fled in July.

seized one of the largest refugee camps in eastern Zaire on Friday, and all United Nations and relief agencies pulled out after staff members were threatened, UN officials said, reports AP.

We've had our colleagues physically threatened with rocks and machetes," said Lyndall Sachs, spokeswoman for the UN High Commissioner for Refugees. "This was a verbal threat that we took seriously. The last thing we need is aid workers killed.

There has been violence and several threats over the past few days at the Katale Refugee Camp, home to an estimated 270,000 Rwandans A Zairean boy scout, helping to eontrol traffic at the camp was killed Wednesday in a fight with Hutu militiamen. Hutu refugees also threatened UNHCR staff trying to move traders to a new market site at Katale because of a false ru mour that they were being taken back to Rwanda.

The incident at Katale took place as a high-level delegation of UN and Zairian officials was in Goma to assess security at the camps and investigate the possibility of separating de feated Hutu soldiers from civil ian refugees

Sachs said the bandits made direct threats against seven international aid workers by

Students protest ban on Islamic headscarves in France PARIS. Oct 1 In the first between education and faith."

reports AP.

The protest outside the Romain Rolland school in Goussainville, a heavily immigrant suburb 27 kilometers (17 miles) north of Paris. highlighted the divisiveness of France's long running scarf controversy. While most students back the girls, many teachers support the ban's goal

It shouldn't be a choice

Aristide loyalists beat up a man (R) believed to be an attache, an armed civilian backing the military regime during a rally in downtown Port-au-Prince on Friday. - AFP photo Uzbek warplanes bomb northern Afghanistan The president has accused ISLAMABAD, Oct 1: Uzbeki-Tunisian Foreign Minister in the past the Uzbek regime Mahmoud Mestiri, said in a of President Islam Karimov of statement that is "views with "interference" in Afghan interalarm and distress the savage hostilities taking place in and Meanwhile Reuter adds: A around (the capital) Kabul."

UN peace mission on Friday condemned what it called a brutal round of fighting in Afghanistan and renewed an appeal to warring factions to immediately stop all hostilities.

3000 Egyptians

arrested in 5

The mission, led by former stan's warplanes on Friday bombed Afghanistan's northern province of Kunduz, killing and injuring several people, staterun Radio Kábul reported, says

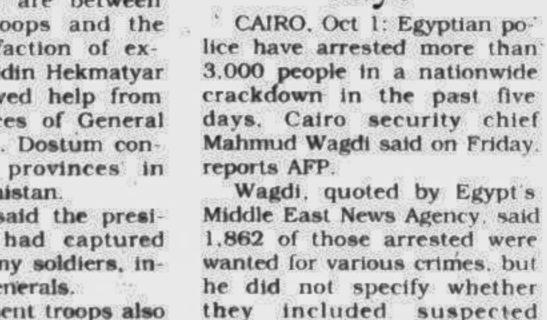

The fighters attacked Afghan territory at mid-day. said the report, which was monitored here.

The radio broadcast, controlled by supporters of Afghan President Burhanuddin Rabbani, said that fighting has continued in Ergank, near Kunduz City, for the past four days, killing or wounding some 200 people.

The clashes are between presidential troops and the Hezb-I-Islami faction of expremier Gulbuddin Hekmatyar who has received help from the Uzbek forces of General Rashid Dostum. Dostum controls several provinces in northern Afghanistan.

The report said the president's troops had captured about 300 enemy soldiers, including some generals.

The government troops also seized six tanks in the fighting

Islamic militants

Some 500 persons attend inauguration ceremonies in the prayer room of the new mosque in the central French city of Lyon on Friday. The 30-million franc project (about 5 million dollar) was partly financed by Saudi Arabia. - AFP photo major challenge of a new gov said Rachid Amaoui. 20. a ing and police stationed outernment ban, hundreds of high school students mobilised Friday in support of four Muslim girls barred from classes because they insist on wearing Islamic headscarves.

of keeping public schools free of religious influence.

Moroccan born student who helped organise the protest "It's an attack on Muslim cul ture, and we're not going to stand for it.

Dozens of riot policemen deployed near the school. But the estimated 300 demonstra tors many who came by train from neighbouring suburbs were peaceful as they awaited word on whether school administrators would support their campaign.

The school's administrative council, however, adopted the ban in its own rules during a meeting Friday evening Students vowed to continue their strike, but no incidents

side the school left Friday

The protest coincided with a warning to France's Muslims by Interior Minister Charles Pasqua that they must ensure their religion conforms with French laws and traditions.

"It would be a major risk if influences contrary to our values, and our conception of the rights of men and women, developed in your community. Pasqua said in Lyon at the inauguration of a long delayed new mosque.

An association of Lyon resi dents had campaigned for al most 15 years against construction of the 31-million mosque the second largest in total acceptance of the French intensity when Education France It has a 25 meter (82 foot) high minaret and can ac commodate 2 500 worship-

Much of the funding for the mosque came from Saudi Arabia. The Saudi ambassador to France attended the inauguration, as did Roman Catholic Jewish and Protestant leaders.

Pasqua, in charge of the na tional police, has overseen a crackdown on French based sympathisers of Muslim fun damentalists in Algeria and sought to deport illegal immigrants many of then Muslims

from North Africa

"France and Islam must has simmered in France for soon reach an accord," Pasqua reality, including its principles as a secular republic. "There shouldn't simply be Islam in France," he said, "There should be an Islam of France. A leftist union group, the General Confederation of Labour, said Pasqua was guilty of "hypocrisy and provocation" in his speech.

"The laws which he and his government have passed have made life more difficult for immigrants in France, includ ing many Muslims", the federa tion said.

Debate over the wearing of headscraves at public schools

Minister Francois Bayrou an nounced an outright ban a few weeks ago on the scarves and other "ostentatious" religious symbols won by students The four girls barred from classes at Goussainville have declined to speak publicly about the dispute, though they have shown up each weekday at the school library. Some of the young men organising the protests on their behalf have been depicted by French au thorities as under the influ ences of fundamentalists. Islam, with a 5 million ad herents in France, is the coun try's second largest religion after Roman Catholicism.

droxylase, which indirectly stimulated dopamine production. Fred Gage, a professor of neuroscience at the University of