Police contingent leaves for Haiti

A ninety-nine member strong police contingent led by Superintendent of Police (SP) A T Ahmedul Huq Chowdhury left Dhaka Thursday night for Puerto Rico on a US Air Force C-141 transport plane. Eleven Bangladesh army officers also left on the same flight. Deputy Inspector General (DIG) of Police Mohammad Nurul Huda saw the police contingent off at Zia International Airport (ZIA), says a USIS press release.

With departure of this flight, 1150 troops committed by Bangladesh to the US-led Multinational Force (MNF) in Haiti is complete. Six flights left Dhaka carrying 660 Bangladeshi troops Thursday.

Appeal to stop piracy in Bay

CHITTAGONG, Oct 7: Leaders of South Halishahar Fishermen's Cooperative Society Thursday appealed to the government to take immediate steps to stop piracy in the Bay to ensure security of fishermen, reports BSS.

They told a group of journalists who visited some fishermen's villages at South Halishahar that pirates had let loose a reign of terror in the Bay along Patenga and Kumira where they operate with powerful fishing trawlers and snatch away everything from the fishermen who have no other means of livelihood. The pirates disparately loot nets, fish etc and even do not hesitate to shoot and fishermen who try to resist them, they alleged.

JU convocation early next yr

By JU Correspondent

The first convocation of the Jahangirnagar University (JU) is likely to be held by early next year. The administrative activities in this connection will, however, be started within next two or three weeks, official sources said.

The vice-chancellor of the university, Prof Amirul Islam Chowdhury has already earmarked the Prime Minister for an allocation of Tk 3 crore for the convocation. The money, if sanctioned, will be used to develop the roads and communication system of the university — sources added.

The VC told this correspondent, while contacted, that already he has initiated correspondence with some other universities to share their experiences of convocation.

Varsity to be set up in Dohar:Huda

Information Minister Nazmul Huda yesterday called upon all to strengthen the nationalist forces to protect democracy, carry on undiminished development and work for the welfare of the people, reports BSS.

The minister was speaking as chief guest at a function in Dohar arranged on the occasion of joining of a large number of leaders and workers of different political parties to BNP.

The Information Minister who is also the local MP said a university of international standard would be set up in Dohar thana and Dohar would then be known as a city of university.

Welcoming the new comers to BNP, Huda said the government was implementing policies of production by maintaining the trend of development to ensure five basic needs of the people.
