

Country's gas reserve to be exhausted by 2015

Energy and Mineral Resources Minister Dr. Khan-daker Mosharraf Hossain yesterday informed the Jatiya Sangsad that the present recoverable deposit of natural gas in Bangladesh was 10.215 trillion cubic feet, reports BSS.

In reply to a question from Sarder Sakawat Hossain Bakul (BNP-Narsingdi) the minister said total recoverable deposit discovered in country's gas fields was 12.416 trillion cubic feet and 2.201 trillion cubic feet had already been utilised.

He said, "at present 670 to 690 million cubic feet of gas is extracted daily from the gas fields that are under production."

Answering a supplementary question the minister said the existing deposit of gas in Bangladesh would be exhausted by the year 2015 and it could continue upto 2020 if some additional equipment could be used for extraction. He said efforts were in progress for discovery of more gas deposits.

In reply to another question he said out of the 17 discovered gas fields in the country seven were under production and development of the rest 10 fields were in progress.

To a supplementary he said there were some unlawful gas connections and the government was taking steps against those.

In reply to another supplementary he said and industrial defaulter in Narayanganj, who had stolen gas through a by-pass, had deposited taka one crore in cash to the government treasury and received the connection back after giving undertaking that he would pay the rest amount due to the government in instalments.

WORLD BANK GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM 1995-96

This is intended for candidates with outstanding academic records who have been admitted for a study leading to master's or doctoral level in a renowned academic institution of the member country of the World Bank. Prospective candidates must have a bachelor degree in a development related field and are under 40 years of age. Full-time working experience for at least three years in the home country in a public or private sector field related to development is a pre-requisite for consideration. Preference will be given to mid-career government officials as well as persons involved in the private sector. The management of the World Bank Graduate Scholarship Program has decided to attract a large number of non-academic applicants for this year's award. The scholarship covers tuition, medical/accident insurance, subsistence allowance and economy class travel costs for the scholar only.

If you fulfil all the above-mentioned criteria, you need to write to us for application papers and return the same duly completed by January 15, 1995, which will be initially screened locally to see that the prospective candidates meet the criteria and then forwarded to our headquarters to reach by February 15, 1995 for final selection.
