All thana HQs to get card phone facilities by '96

All the thana headquarters would be covered under card phone facilities in phases by 1996. Information and Commerce Minister M. Shamsul Islam told the Jatiya Sangsad yesterday, reports BSS.

Relying to a Private Member's Resolution moved by Nizamuddin Khan (Manikganj) demanding card phone facilities at all district and thana headquarters, the minister said that the government had already extended the card phone facilities at all district headquarters making the best use of the limited resources.

Shamsul Islam said that considering the increasing demand for card phone, the government had already installed 850 card phones covering nearly 50,000 subscribers.

He said that arrangements were underway to install another 400 card phones at different places in the country.

The Information Minister

was replying to the resolution on behalf of the Post and Telecommunications Minister.

Dress-as-you-like programme of BPC today

The Bangladesh Post & Telegraph Corporation (BPC) will organise a dress-as-you-like competition in the city today in observance of the ongoing Tourism Month '94, reports UNB.

Forest and Environment Minister Akbar Hossain will inaugurate the competition at the Abahani playground in Dhanmondi at 10 am. It will be open for all.

Zafar Ullah Chowdhury MP, Ataur Rahman Khan MP, Begum Selina Rahman MP, Begum Farida Rahman MP and the Bhutanese Ambassador to Bangladesh will attend the competition as special guests, said a BPC press release.

The Information Minister

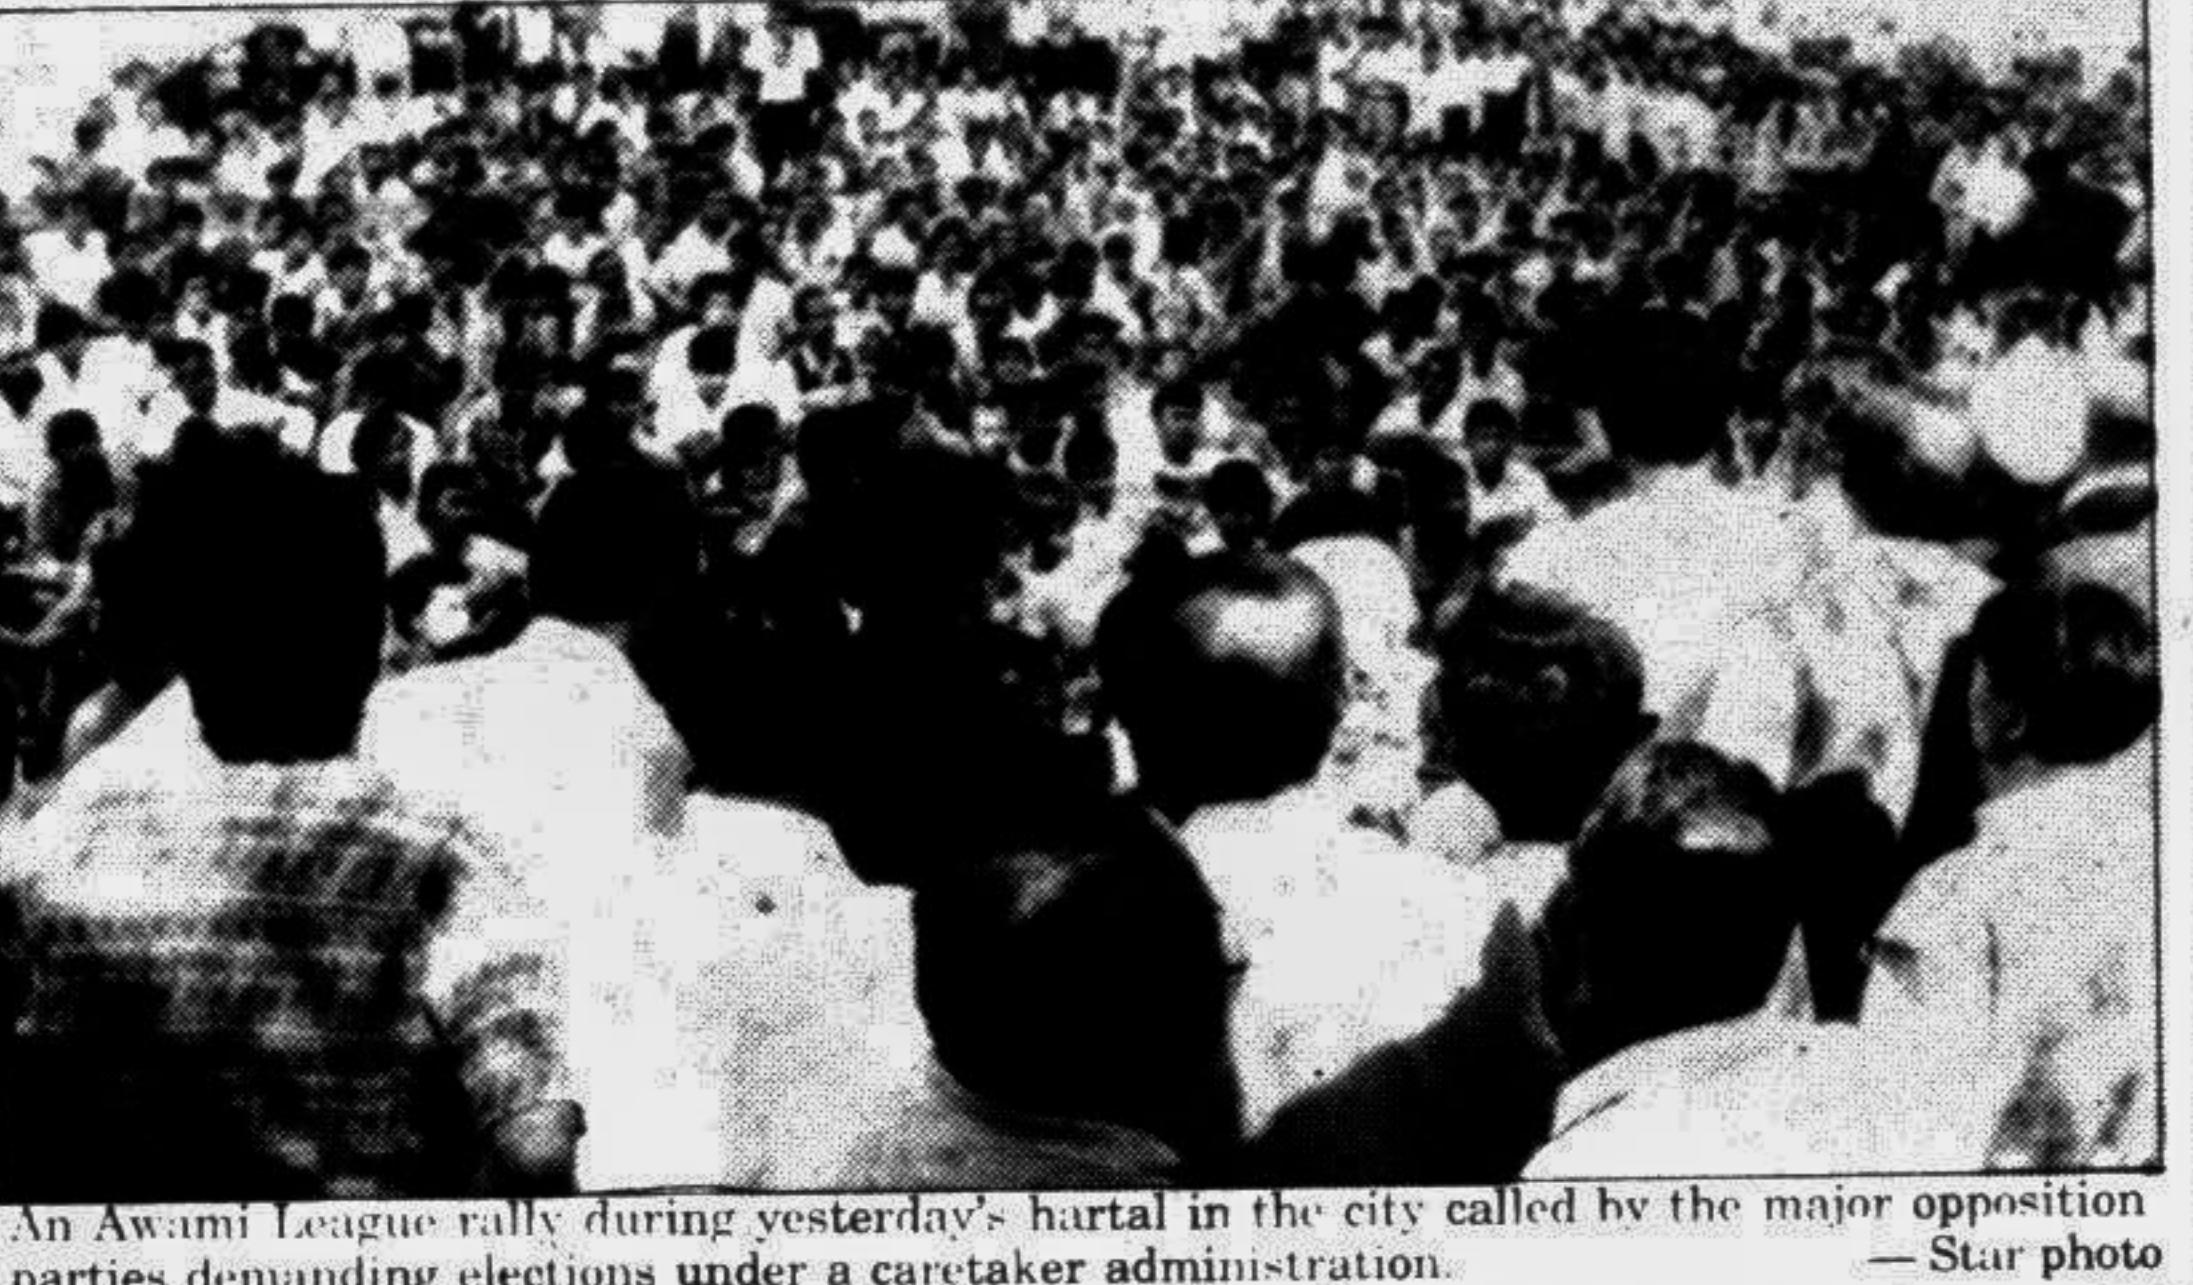

Tariqul Islam.

Nizamuddin, however, withdrew his resolution at the assurance that his constituency Manikganj would be given priority in installing a card phone unit.

Three other private members' resolutions were also disposed-off yesterday.

Energy and Mineral Resources Minister Dr. Khan-daker Mosharraf Hossain told the House that the government was seriously pursuing to mobilise fund for implementation of the Ruppur power plant project.

Replying to a resolution moved by Mohammad Sirajul Islam (Pabna) that the Ruppur Atomic Project should be materialised immediately, the minister said a high level committee in this connection headed by Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia met recently and decided to execute the project.
