Maiden sidewalk art show

By Staff Correspondent

The students of the Institute of Fine Arts of the Dhaka University celebrated this year's Victory Day in a rather unusual way — by organising a sidewalk art exhibition in front of the institute.

The city people, for the first time, had an opportunity to enjoy such an event where one could find hanging prints, water colour, acrylic, gouache from strings. In this gala of art works, the aficionados could go and talk to the artists sitting around the Pushka Stands while sipping a cup of tea or relishing a plate of chatpoti or phuchka.

It was a novel effort to popularise art in our country, thus freeing art from the confinement of the gallery walls.

The artists whose works adorned the festa were — Ahmed Nazir, Humayun Kabir, Bahar, Fakruzzaman Helal, Shah Moshfiqur Rahman Bipul, Kabir Ahmed, Anam Shaker, Mustafa Zaman, Jafar Iqbal Jewel, Shawkat Hussain, Saleh Mahmud and S M Nurullah.

Obituary

He was 82, says a press release.

He left behind his wife, two sons, a daughter and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

His wife, Begum Shamsun-nahar, is a former member of parliament and his eldest son, Waliur Rahman, is the managing director of Social Marketing Company (SMC).

Kulshwani of the deceased will be held today at his residence at 4, Bhagabati Banerjee Road at Hatkhola after Asr prayers.
