CCHRB concerns over political stalemate
The Coordinating Council for Human Rights in Bangladesh (CCHRB) yesterday expressed concern over the present political crisis, saying that it may lead to violence, anarchy, instability and to violation of human rights, reports UNB.
The Council urged the government and the opposition political parties to resolve the crisis through discussion to keep up democratic process.
Deviation from the parliamentary affairs by both the ruling party and the Opposition and losing time and energy outside parliament will not bring any welfare to the people, the CCHRB said in a press release.

No alternative to reform: Mosharraf
Energy and Mineral Resources Minister Dr Khandaker Mosharraf Hossain yesterday said, the government firmly believes that there is no alternative to reform to eliminate all disorders and imbalances in national economy to free the country from the vicious cycle of poverty, reports BSS.
"By reform" we mean structural shift from agriculture to industry, moving away from tariff subsidies, public ownership toward privatisation, simplification of procedures, competitive environment as well as overall reform in the economic system," he said.
Dr Mosharraf Hossain said this while addressing the installation ceremony of the Institution of Business Administration Alumni Association at Sonargaon Hotel here.
Director of IBA of the Dhaka University Prof M Shamsul Haque attended the function as the guest of honour while it was chaired by the newly-elected president of the association M Habibur Rahman Khan. Former president of the association Tamuzuddin Ahmed and the newly-elected general secretary M Saidul Haq also spoke on the occasion.
