Woman killed in road accident

A 60-year-old woman was killed in a road accident at Demra yesterday, police said. Mosammat Ayetunnessa was crushed under the wheels of a speeding truck while she was crossing the Dhaka-Narayanganj road near the WAPDA gate at Demra about 12 noon. Police sent the body to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital morgue, reports UNB.

Sit-in in Sylhet

From Staff Correspondent
SYLHET, Dec 23: To press the demand for immediate start of the functioning of Sylhet division, the greater Sylhet Ganadabi Parishad, a non-partisan organisation would stage a half-day 'sit-in' at the Sylhet poura-point tomorrow. The organisation has also called a half-day hartal for the same demand on January 11 next, in Sylhet district.

20 dwelling houses gutted in Ctg

CHITTAGONG, Dec 23: At least twenty thatched dwelling houses were gutted in a fire that broke out at a slum near Pahartali CDA market here in the early hours of today. According to fire service and police sources, the fire originated from a kitchen engulfed the entire slum soon. Five fire units fought for about one hour to extinguish the fire, reports BSS.

Shamsul Islam returns

Commerce and Information Minister M Shamsul Islam returned home yesterday on conclusion of his visit to Saudi Arabia. The minister was leaving a five-member trade delegation, reports BSS.

Dudayev's call for 'holy war' Major Russian assault to seal off Grozny GROZNY, Dec 23: Russian troops backed by artillery and helicopter gunships today launched a major assault to completely seal off Grozny, amid continued intense bombing of the city by Russian warplanes. Elite marine units and two motorised divisions arrived in the region today and sealed off the capital of the breakaway Chechnya republic, a Russian government spokesman in Moscow told AFP.

The official said the information had come from the command headquarters of the Russian operation in Chechnya, adding that the report had been 'verified'.

"The Siberian and Urals motorised divisions and marines units have arrived around Grozny to reinforce troops already present on the ground," reported the Itar-Tass news agency, citing a government statement.

Earlier, fierce fighting was reported east of Grozny as Russian troops mounted a major attack against the strategic town of Argun about 20 kilometres away in a bid to complete their encirclement of the capital.

Argun stands on the road from Grozny to Gudermes in the neighbouring republic of Dagestan, whose border with Chechnya was closed by Russian troops today.

Correspondents at Argun reported that the Russians bombarded outgunned Chechen defenders with helicopter gunships and artillery. Warplanes roared overhead. Smoke poured out of Argun and two positions near the town.

Russian warplanes renewed bombing runs against Grozny early today, for the fifth MOSCOW, Dec 23: A pro-democracy military group which once ardently supported President Boris Yeltsin today called on the Russian president to stop his 'unjust war' in Chechnya. Military for Democracy also called on Russian pilots to follow the example of other officers who have either refused to attack Chechnya or resigned in protest, reports AP.

straight day, causing casualties and damage, the Interfax news agency reported.

The presidential palace of the Chechen leader Dzhokhar Dudayev was 'slightly hit' and 'windows shattered', Dudayev's spokesman Mussa Merzhuyev said. The raid took place around 11.00 am (0800 GMT).

The attack followed a night of bombing which left at least 10 people dead and 30 injured in the capital of the small Muslim republic, according to hospital reports in Grozny.

AP adds: Chechen President Dzhokhar Dudayev, who has led his republic's drive for independence from Moscow, went on Chechen television Thursday night to urge his people to wage an 'Islamic holy war'. He denounced Moscow's 'satanic' offensive against his southern republic.

Dudayev, reportedly directing his republic's military operations from a bomb shelter near the presidential palace in Grozny, said it was better to die with honor in a holy war than be enslaved.

Meanwhile, Georgian leader Eduard Shevardnadze ordered border security increased and troops put on combat alert today to block Abkhazian mercenaries from travelling to Chechnya to fight Russia.

The Shevardnadze decree came as a Russian general accused Abkhazia, a province which has declared independence from Georgia, of allowing the secret training of militants sympathetic to Chechnya.

Gen Georgy Kondratiev, Russian deputy defense minister, visited Abkhazia last week and said he saw and heard recruiting appeals in the media for mercenaries to join forces loyal to Chechen President Dudayev.

Another report says: The Speaker of Chechnya's parliament today sent Russia a telegram offering immediate talks.

Anhyad Idigov made the offer in a message to the federation council, or upper house.

He offered to begin talks on the basis of "documents already set out concerning the share-out of power between the institutions of the Russian Federation and the republic of Chechnya."

PM may address nation over radio, TV

BNP leaders hint at solution of crisis

Star Report

As the deadline for the threatened resignation by Opposition members of Parliament draws near circles close to the corridors of power hinted that the impending political storm may yet pass over with both sides relenting to spare the country the damaging consequences of an open confrontation.

Sources in the ruling Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) expressed guarded optimism that the current crisis may after all be resolved amicably given the will on both sides of the political divide.

A very senior member of Begum Zia's cabinet, talking to The Daily Star last night on condition of anonymity, said the Prime Minister may soon address the nation over radio and television to make a fresh proposal to the Opposition regarding a solution to the political impasse.

According to another source, the BNP policy-makers have been working overtime to prepare a draft wherein the party's position regarding the Opposition demand for general elections under a caretaker government would be explained.

The draft may also suggest new ways and offer fresh concessions to the Opposition in a bid to avoid heading towards a point of no return, especially in the light of the Opposition's threat to resign from Parliament by December 28.

Tk 644cr project to modernise gas network

SYLHET, Dec 23: Government has taken up a project at a cost of Taka 644 crore to develop and modernise the gas network system of the country, reports BSS.

The World Bank and Overseas Development Agency (ODA) will provide technical and financial assistance for the project — Gas Infrastructure Development Project (GIDP). The project is scheduled to be completed by the year 1999.

The project will bring country's gas network under a central computer system and will also help bring about a significant development in gas management.

This was disclosed by Energy and Mineral Resources Minister Dr Khandaker Mosharraf Hossain while visiting some installations of Kailasita gas fields under Sylhet Gas

Indian parliament adjourned sine die

Opposition trains gun on Rao

NEW DELHI, Dec 23: The winter session of parliament was today adjourned sine die amidst bedlam in both houses as a buoyant opposition demanded immediate resignation of the corrupt Narasimha Rao government, asking the Prime Minister to seek a fresh mandate through a snap poll, report PTI, AFP.

Emboldened by the resignation of three tainted union ministers indicted in the securities and sugar scandals, the opposition trained their guns on the Prime Minister, challenging him to face a mid-term election.

The opposition strategy was evident as they repeatedly stormed the well of 80th Houses shouting slogans against Rao and his government. They also demanded personal explanations from B Shankaranand, Rameshwar Thakur and Kalpana Rai, whose resignations were accepted last night.

Trouble broke out in the Lok Sabha at 1100 hours when Janata Dal leader Sharad Yadav stoutly supported BJP leader LK Advani's contention that the Prime Minister had no option but to quit as he was heading a 'corrupt government'.

But Rao's 109-year-old party shrugged off the demands saying the Congress would easily sail through the crisis.

There is no question of the Prime Minister resigning at all, Congress spokesman V. N. Gadgil said. The question simply does not arise.

Gadgil also described Rao's Thursday night sacking of three ministers accused of corruption as a 'closed chapter'.

Parliament was plunged into chaos as opposition MPs forced an adjournment of parliament by jamming business in the upper and lower houses for the ninth straight day today.

3 foreign firms propose to set up power plant in CHT

By Sharier Khan

Three foreign companies have jointly proposed setting up a 40 mega-watt (MW) gas-based power house in Semutang in the Chittagong Hill Tracts, according to sources.

The three companies — Cairn plc of Scotland, Holland Sea Search of the Netherlands and Midland Electricity of England — submitted their proposal to set up the plant by utilising the Semutang gas field, which has not been used for three to four decades since its discovery.

Last month Cairn plc and Holland Sea Search initiated contracts with the government to explore hydrocarbon resources in Block 15 covering the Chittagong Hill Tracts. The Semutang gas field is within this block.

Sources say, the Semutang field has a reserve of about 100 billion cubic feet of gas. British power house giants, Midland plc, has proposed to build the power house with the new equipment within 15 months after the signing of a contract.

Representatives of Midland, Cairn and Holland Sea Search have met the officials of the Energy Ministry as well as Petrobangla several times this month. When contacted over phone, a representative of Cairn plc, M R Islam, told The Daily Star yesterday that "the discussions were very positive."

"Cairn plc has been playing a pioneering role in the exploration of oil and gas in the country and it will also play a pioneering role in the power sector," Islam added.

Both Cairn and Holland Sea

Search have proposed to the government that they be allowed to conduct survey of some of the parts of Block 15 which covers a portion of the Bay of Bengal. The two companies are also beginning a survey in the Bay near the Cox's Bazar-Sandwip region for hydro-carbon resources.

However, official sources said, the power sharing contracts (PSCs) signed by the government and Cairn and Holland Sea Search regarding Block 15 on November 15, have not yet been sent to the ministry for approval.

The 40-mw power plant cannot be set up unless the government signs final agreements with these companies on Block 15, the sources added.

Child killed, 250 houses gutted in city fire

By Staff Correspondent

A baby was charred to death and shanty houses and machinery were gutted in two fire incidents in the capital yesterday evening.

Fire broke out almost simultaneously at 6:30 pm at a slum at Agargaon and at a cotton factory godown at Senpara, Mirpur. The first fire was said to have originated from a home-made oven while the second one from short-circuit.

An unidentified baby, 4, died on the spot and over 250 thatched houses were gutted when the fire quickly spread in a slum at Agargaon.

2 murdered in city

By DMCH Correspondent

Two young men were murdered in the capital's Novatola and Khilgaon areas yesterday evening.

Tomal, 25, was murdered at Khilgaon around 6 in the evening while a teenager Selim was murdered at Novatola around 7 pm. Both the persons reportedly fell victims to previous rivalry in their locality.

In none of the cases police could arrest any suspects until filing of this report around midnight.

Relatives said, some young men called Selim out of his residence at 540 Novatola around 7 in the evening and within a short time some unidentified men left unconscious Selim near his house.

Selim carried severe bruises of torture and stab wounds on the body. He was rushed to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) where he was declared dead on arrival. He was 18 and was neither student nor employed.

In another incident Tomal was stabbed and shot to death at Khilgaon area reportedly by some local miscreants when he was passing through the area by a motor-bike along with two of his friends, one of whom was identified as Monir.

Witnesses said Tomal was waylaid by the armed gang who severely stabbed him and shot at him to death.

However, Monir and another friend who were accompanying Tomal on the bike fled

No immediate DCC action likely against illegal occupants

By Staff Correspondent

The Dhaka City Corporation (DCC) has no plan to go for immediate action against illegal occupants of its unallotted shops and spaces in different markets though they were warned of stern measures about five months back.

The DCC had asked the illegal occupants to vacate the unallotted shops and spaces through a notice at the end of July last, published in at least six national dailies.

In the notice the DCC warned of stern action and legal measures if the illegal occupants did not vacate the shops and spaces within 15 days of the issuance of notice.

The occupants, however, ignore the notice, said an official of the corporation who requested not to be named. "Our people are not so honest that they would willingly return the property of the corporation just after a notice," he said.

The DCC, according to him, recovered about 10 per cent of the shops in the meantime through its routine eviction programme.

When asked whether the corporation would take any massive programme beyond the routine operation to recover the occupied shops or spaces, he said, "not yet."

Three are some 1150 unallotted shops in different markets. Of the total, court issued injunction on some 200 shops which were illegally allotted during the period of the previous government, DCC sources said.

The corporation has recently invited applications for allotment of 871 shops and some 250 shops still remain occupied unlawfully a committee comprising both DCC officials and commissioners has already been formed in this regard.

Spaces in different markets, particularly that of the New Market, have also been occupied by hawkers and vendors hindering the movement of customers. The DCC official,

Opposition's blockade programme today

By Staff Correspondent

The three major opposition parties in Parliament — the Awami League, Jatiya Party and the Jamaat-e-Islami — will enforce a country-wide blockade of roads, railway and the waterways today to press their demand for a neutral caretaker government to conduct future general elections.

The blockade will last from 6 am till noon, a senior AL leader said last night on condition of anonymity.

Trawler sinks in Bay

From Staff Correspondent

BARISAL, Dec 23: The FB Jahanara, a fishing trawler sank in the Bay of Bengal some 40 kilometers off Patharghata of Barguna district amid strong tide last night.

Ten fishermen on board of the FB Jahanara were rescued by another fishing trawler, FB Zulekha, after 6 hours. The rescued fishermen Ayub Ali, 27, Babul 26, Dulal 30, Sagor 10, Khalil, 23, Sahed Ali 30, Abu Sahleh 21, Khalil 27, Samad 25, and Kalam 25, are now at Patharghata.

The Patharghata Trawler Owners Association gave one set of clothings for each of them and provided necessary first aid. Fishing nets and cash of about 4 lakh taka have been lost with the sunken trawler, sources said.

Sec 144 imposed on Banaripara

From Staff Correspondent

BARISAL, Dec 23: Barisal district administration have imposed Section 144 in Banaripara thana area for 21 hours beginning 9 am today.

The measure has been taken to avert possible clashes between supporters of the BNP and Jatiyo Party, according to sources.

The Jatiyo Party and the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JC) called for holding separate meetings at the same venue at the Banaripara High School ground tomorrow afternoon.

Jatiyo Party leaders Shah Moazem Hossain, Munirul Islam and Abdul Barek were scheduled to address the meetings.

The JP at a press conference at New Market this afternoon protested the imposition of Section 144.

The JP also brought out a procession after the press conference.

3 killed in rice mill boiler blast

BRAHMANBARIA, Dec 23: Three people including two children were killed and three others injured seriously when a rice mill boiler exploded at village Shaigalon in Brahmanbaria Sadar thana this morning, reports UNB.

The victims were identified as Habibullah, 32, a labourer of the mill, his younger brother Shariatullah, 8, and Umela Begum, 2, daughter of another labourer Abdul Khaleque.

Three other labourers — Abul Bashar, 40, Saleha, 25, and Abdul Jabbar, 40, — were admitted to Brahmanbaria Sadar Hospital in critical condition.

Police sources said the accident occurred at about 7 am due to overheating, killing Sha-ratullah on the spot. Habib-ullah died on way to hospital while Umela Begum succumbed to her injuries at the hospital.

DCC won't raise holding tax, repeats Hanif

By Staff Correspondent

Dhaka City Corporation Mayor Mohammad Hanif yesterday reiterated his commitment not to raise any holding tax for the next five years.

Addressing a spontaneous rally in the city while visiting development projects in Ward No. 83, the Mayor said, "This was my election pledge and I will fulfil all my pledges."

The rally, chaired by a social worker of the Ward MA Sayed, was also addressed by ward commissioner Liyakat Ali and woman commissioner Nasima Mantu.

The Mayor said a community centre and a play ground would also be set up in the area.

Supporters of the Awami League brought out a procession in the city yesterday in support of today's 6 am-12 noon road-rail barricade programme a success. —Star photo
