Hospital doctors, authorities to be given more power: Yusuf

By DMCH Correspondent. The Health and Family Welfare Minister Chowdhury Kamal Ibne yusuf told that the government hospitals doctors and authorities would be given more power to take decisions immediately so that they can manage the hospital properly and efficiently.

The minister was addressing the inaugural ceremony as the chief guest of the centre of management excellence and Quality assurance (COMEGA) programme at the Dhaka medical college (DMC) early yesterday afternoon.

The programme was organised by the study on hospital organisation and administration to improve the service of the country's biggest hospital, Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) under the programme of COMEGA.

The health minister regretted that although we have qualified doctors nurses and health workers patients go abroad for treatment.

The minister said if we solve the problems at DMCH we shall be able to solve the problems of all the medical college hospitals and to implement this we need the help of the community concerned.

WHO consultant Dr Lokky Wai told that information, personal logistic supply and systemic management were the fundamental requirements for the management.
