Privatisation of radio, TV underlined

Echoing the global trend, speakers at a workshop yesterday underlined the need for privatisation of the electronic media — radio and TV — to give the country's audience a wider access to information superhighway, reports UNB.

Describing the privatisation as a top agenda both for the government and the opposition, Chief Editor of the United News of Bangladesh (UNB) and weekly Dhaka Courier Enayetullah Khan said it should be done in the long-term interest of the nation.

The doors should be opened for private entrepreneurs to allow them to launch radio and television stations to give better choice to the listeners and viewers. Otherwise, more viewers of TV will switch to foreign entertainment channels like Zee TV or ATN, Khan added.

Referring to the country's nearly 14 lakh TV sets with about 10 million viewers, Khan said satellite cost is decreasing by 10 per cent every year beckoning the commercially viable private TV channels in Bangladesh.

Dwelling on the Sri Lankan experience, Khan said the privatisation wave had touched the South Asian subcontinent where Sri Lanka played the pioneering role in opening its airwaves to private entrepreneurs.

The Asia Foundation and the Dhaka Courier jointly organised the day-long workshop on "Electronic Media in Bangladesh" held at a local hotel.

The workshop was participated by jurist and PIB Chairman Gazi Shamsur Rahman, Chairman of Centre for Development Research Dr Mizanur Rahman Shelley, Prof AQM Nooruddin of Mass Communication and Journalism Department of Dhaka University, Prof Anisuzzaman of Dhaka Univer-
