secretary of the Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) yesterday expressed the hope that the Ministry of Information would immediately constitute the fifth wage board and declare 50 per cent dearness allowance for the interim period to fulfil the demands of the journalists' community, re ports BSS.

The DUJ leaders said the government had already announced 10 per cent dearness allowance to the employees of the government, semi-government and autonomous bodies which, they observed, had created a serious disparity in the salaries between the journalists and the government employees.

They further demanded constitution of a journalists welfare trust as decided by the government and announced by the information ministry.

Chakma repatriation urged

From Back Page

He said the process of repa triation was due to continue without any interruption in accordance with the provisions of that agreement. "The kind of deviations being mentioned now are no fundamental problems," he said adding that the refugees could solve them after their return to home.

He called upon the refugee leaders to come back home and take part actively in the rehabilitation process.

Member of the delegation Kalparanjan Chakma gave a detailed description of the rehabilitation process and asked the refugees to come back home immediately.

Bhandari, during the meeting with the delegation at the governor house yesterday, assured of his allout cooperation to start the repatriation of the remaining refugees immediately to their homes.

In another meeting with tribal leaders headed by Upendra Lal Chakma in Agartala on Thursday noon, Menon and Kalparanjan Chakma made a farvent appeal to them to come back home. They also described to them the facilities being provided by the government for the Chakma refugees.

In the afternoon, the communications minister gave a detailed account of government facilities being provided for the tribal refugers at a crowded press conference held at the governor house. "It is good for all to see the early repatriation of the refugees." he added.

Oli Ahmed urged the Indian government not to link the repatriation issue with any political or other problem but to create favourable atmosphere to help return the refugees to their own homes.

The press conference was attended by the governor of Tripura, health minister of the state and members of the Bangladesh delegation. The handout said that 5.186 members of 1.027 tribal families came back to their homes officially and 429 members of 107 families on their will so far. Those returned on own initiative are enjoying the same facilities provided by the government, the handout said.

Governor Ramesh Bhandari, Health Minister Keshab Majumder, Youth and Sports Minister Jiten Choudhury and Chief Secretary of Tripura saw the Bangladesh delegations off at the Akhaura check post on Thursday afternoon, the handout said.
