BCTA urges govt to pay part of salary by Feb 20

Bangladesh College Teachers' Association (BCTA), an association of private-government college teachers, urged the government to pay part of their salaries for the current month by February 20, reports UNB. The call was given by President and General Secretary of the association Principal A K M Zahurul Islam and Principal Kazi Faruk Ahmed in a statement issued here yesterday. We are not getting our salaries before the Eid-ul-Fitr to be observed in the first week of March, the BCTA leaders observed saying that government college teachers are drawing their salaries and a festival bonus before the Eid festival. They also demanded 10 per cent increase in their salary as per a government announcement, which has declared 10 per cent pay-hike for government servants considering recent price rise, the statement added.
