Construction of nat'l art theatre, music centres soon

The construction work of National Theatre, National Art Gallery and National Music Centre at an estimated cost of Taka 58.21 crore will begin soon. State Minister for Cultural Affairs Prof. Jahanara Begum said yesterday, reports BSS.

She said the construction work of national theatre within the Shilpakala Academy premises would involve Taka 21.53 crore while that of National Art Gallery at Sher-e-Bangla Nagar would require Taka 21.68 crore. She said the estimated cost of music centre would be about Taka 15 crore.

Talking to newsmen at an iftar party at a city hotel the state minister disclosed that the government would set up a cultural centre at an estimated cost of Taka three crore at Cox's Bazar to attract tourists in the country.

Besides, she said, a project for preservation of the country's archaeological treasures at Bagerhat and Paharpur at a cost of Taka 5.31 crore was in progress. She said Paharpur Museum which has already been completed, would be inaugurated soon.

The state minister expressed her satisfaction over the people's response to recently held book fair and Ekushey programmes observed by organisations including Nazrul Institute, National Museum and Shilpakala Academy. She was thankful to the press for their objective coverage of the programmes.

Dwelling at length on the activities of her ministry, she referred to the recently held Bangladesh Cultural Festival in India under bilateral cultural agreement. She also mentioned the cultural exchange programmes with other countries.

Secretary of Cultural Ministry Mokhesur Rahman, Director General of Bangla Academy Harunur Rashid and Director General of Shilpakala Academy Mobarak Hossain Khan and senior official of the ministry were present.
