Tantileague's ultimatum

By Staff Correspondent

The Bangladesh Awami Tantileague, a weavers organisation, has threatened greater agitation after Ramadan unless its demands for waiving advance income tax, decreasing yarn price and exempting loan were not met immediately.

Addressing a press conference in the city yesterday Sohrabuddin Ahmed, convener of the Tantileague, said that price of yarn has been increased 52 times since 1975. and the price was increased by Taka 8,000 per bale of yarn during last three months.

He deplored that the parliamentary committee on textiles has failed to submit its report on weaving loan scandal haring last four years.

Mill owners express inability to raise benefits of workers

Government leaders at a meeting yesterday urged the owners of jute, textile and spinning mills to resolve the problems with the workers. but the owners conveyed their inability to raise financial benefits of the workers, reports UNB.

Labour and Manpower Minister Mir Shawkat Ali called upon the owners to resolve the present problems through sincere and amicable negotiations with labour lead-

He made the plea at the government-owners meeting to systain the tempo of production and for unhindered progress of the government's development programmes.

Addressing the meeting. Jute Minister A S M Hannan Shah laid emphasis on maintaining congenial atmosphere in the mill areas of both the public and private sectors to keep up the flow of production and safeguard interest of all parties concerned.

The mill owners, who attended the meeting, informed the ministers that production in the mills were being hampered for long due to 'chaotic and destructive political activities of the opposition'.

For these reasons, they are not in a position to raise financial benefit of the workers at the present moment, the owners told the meeting held at the Labour Minister's secre tariat office.

Bangladesh Jute Mills Association chairman Syed Mohsen Ali, vice-chairmen Momenur Rahman, Mohammad Shamsul Hag and Khandaker Raisuddin Ahmed, and vice-chairman of Bangladesh Spinning Mills Association Mainul Islam Khan took part in the discussion. Juté, textile and spinning mills workers observed strikes and organised 'road and rail blockade' programmes in the last several weeks demanding pay rise and other benefits. The Labour Minister said the management and the workers of the milk should cordially resolve their problems as free market et onorm now exists in the country.

Mir Shawkat underscored the need for resolving the problem that has been causing distress for the general public. This is not desirable, he said

The minister hoped that both the sides would devote themselves to increase productivity and participate in nation-building activities for the greater interest of the country.

Labour and Manpower Secretary Dr Shah Mohammad Farid and senior officials of the Ministry and the Library Directorate were present in the meeting.
