Taranga' begins

By Staff Correspondent A two-day mela held by ' taranga', an NGO, began yesterday at the Business and Professional Women's Club in the

The organisation, officially registered three years ago. aims to help rural widows, divorcees and destitute women in Bangladesh through training and assistance in selling their handicraft products. "Taranga's" beneficiaries include jute-goods producers from Dinajpur, Barisal and Gazipur; Nakshikantha workers from Kushtia and Pirojpur; and textile-weavers from Cox's Bazar.

"We wish to maintain and perpetuate the indigenous traditions of our country while at the same time modifying our products to suit the tastes of our overseas customers," said Samsul Nahar, Director of the Taranga.

The mela was opened by Dr Nasma Chowdhury, Chairperson of the Beijing NGO Forum, and was attended by Father Klaus Beurle, advisor to "Taranga", "Dipshika", 'Sampreeti" and "BGS'.

Two-day mela of B Chy blames AL for betraying people

NARAYANGANJ. Feb 24: Deputy Leader in Parliament Prof A Q M Badruddoza Chy Wednesday blamed the Awami League for betraying the people and the democratic forces through its present move, reports UNB.

"That Awami League which was our comrade in nine years of anti-autocracy agitation and which is the exponent of liberation movement has banded with the autocratic and antiliberation forces against the democratic BNP," regretted the Deputy Leader of the House.

Prof Chowdhury was addressing as chief guest a discussion meeting organised by town and district units of the BNP at the Ali Ahmed Chunka Auditorium in observance of Amar Ekushey.

He observed, the Liberation War is the continuity of Ekushey. "If there hadn't been a language war, the Liberation War would surely be deferred." he said, terming Ekushey as a milestone in our national life.

The Shilpakala Academy and the Chinese Embassy have jointly organised the show.

The exhibition was inaugurated by Prof Jahan Ara Begum. State Minister of Cultural Affairs and the visiting Chinese assistant minister of Cultural Affairs, Gao Yun Jia, was present as special guest.

"There is close cooperation between Bangladesh and China in the cultural field, and this exhibition, which is both informative and educational. will enhance that bond." Jahan Ara said in her inaugural spe-"Through these photog raphs, people outside of China will get a glimpse of Chinese culture, social and economic life," Gao said in his speech.

Also present at the opening ceremony were Mobarak Hossain Khan, director general. Shilpakala Academy: Zhang Xujiang, Ambassador of China and Subir Chowdhury, director of finance of the academy. The exhibition will be on till Feb 27 and will remain open every day from 10 am to 5 pm barring Friday.

Meanwhile, UNB adds: The visiting Chinese assistant minister called on Prof Jahan Ara Begum at her office in the city vesterday. During the discussion the Chinese minister said his government is willing to give some Chinese archaeological relics to Bangladesh National Museum for preservation and display. The state minister expressed her gratitude for the willingness in this regard.

Ghanaian envoy presents credentials

The new High Commissioner-designate of Ghana to Bangladesh, Anthony Forson, presented his credentials to President Abdur Rahman Biswas at Bangabhaban yesterday, reports UNB.

Accepting the credentials, President Biswas said, bilateral relations between the two countries have progressed steadily and there exists an immense scope for expansion of economic cooperation specially in the field of trade, agriculture and manpower' training for the mutual benefits of our two peoples.

He hoped that during his tenure the new High Commissioner would further contribute towards promotion of the close and friendly relations that so happily exist between the two countries.
