The director of the centre, Dr Demissie Habte took the ministers to different sections of the centre and apprised them of the various activities that provide health care services to the people.

Speaking on the occasion. the finance minister made a pledge of Tk 1 crore from the government to the centre's hospital

He pointed out that the contributions from the govconnent to the centre had increased seven and a half fold in 1994 from the previous year and said government's annual contribution to the centre would be reviewed in the light of increasing needs of the cen-

The finance minister asked The university was closed in he centre management to expand its existing facilities at the hospital for better patient care. He said any request for expansion of the activities of the ICDDR.B would be received lavourably.

Both the ministers appreciated the activities of the centre and hoped that the centre would continue to maintain its role as a pioneer in medical research

Earlier, the director of the centre. Dr Habte said that the two hospitals run by the centre (one in Dhaka and the other at Matlab) account for 15 per cent of the centre's budget.

Ornaments snatched

A gang of miscreants snat ched gold ornaments and cash worth about Tk 25,000 from a Dhaka University student in broad day light in front of Hotel Sonargaon in the city on Eid Day Friday, reports UNB.

Police said Farzana Wahab. an MA final year student of Mass Communication and Journalism Department, while passing the road at about 12:00 noon in a rickshaw along with her husband, was attacked by the miscreants.

The miscreants numbering five to six snatched the ornaments and cash at dagger's point and decamped safely.

A case has been filed with Teigaon thana.
