KCC Mayor says:

Law, order situation worsens

KHULNA, Mar 9: The law and order situation in the metropolitan city has deteriorated to a great extent after the simultaneous killing of three political activists, reports UNB. Some dwellers complained that the city people at present have become captive of the armed terrorists. According to them the three political killings occurred in the city between February 25 and March 4 and consequently incidents of clashes and crimes have increased alarmingly causing grave concern among the dwellers. Awami League leader and ward commissioner Moslemuddin Khan was killed on February 25. JCD leader Abul Kalam Azad was killed on February 26 while another JCD leader Goutami was killed on February 4. The three killings in the broad-day-light created panic among the city dwellers, they added. The main accused of the killings were yet to be nabbed. Incidents of ransacking of the various political party offices and business establishments occurred following the killings. Police arrested about 100 people under operation Durbar but could not recover a single arms. Rather, the arrested are mostly said to be innocent. Mayor of the Khulna City Corporation (KCC) Sheikh Toyabur Rahman told UNB that the law and order situation of the city has deteriorated severely. The Khulna Metropolitan Police called upon the city people to help nab the armed miscreants and announced prize of Tk 2,000 for recovering stengun, Tk 1,000 for shotgun and Tk 500 for pipegun.
