Folk art, craft festival begins
Call to promote country's cultural heritage

A month-long folk art and craft festival was inaugurated in Sonargaon, Narayanganj yesterday with a call to promote country's cultural heritage, reports BSS.

Organised by the Bangladesh Folk Art and Craft Foundation at its premises, the function was also addressed by Prof Rezaul Karim MP, Secretary, Ministry of Cultural Affairs, Mokdesur Rahman, director of the foundation, Bazlur Rahman Bhuiyan and deputy director Syed Mahabub Alam.

The state minister said there was no reason of borrowing alien culture where the country had a rich culture of her own. In this context, she cited examples of some of the lost glories. Prof. Jahannara favoured promotion of baul, jari, kabigan and gumbira.

She also recalled the sacrifices of the people in War of Liberation Language Movement and other democratic struggles.

Later, Haris Dewan and his team, and Sona Mia Bayati and his group enthralled the audience by their traditional folk songs.

Earlier, the state minister went round some stalls in the festival.

Some 700 artistes from different corners of the country are expected to participate in different programmes during the month-long gala. Situated on an area of about 150 bighas, the foundation has reportedly submitted a Taka 55 crore development scheme. If govt approves the plan, it will take nearly 15 years to be implemented. BSS reports quoting a foundation source.

Referring to the historic importance of Sonargaon Prof Rezaul Karim said, the area was widely famed for the exportation of Muslin and Jamdani textiles and pearls to different countries of the world. He sought people's cooperation for revival of the lost glory.

NOTICE

The British Council would like to inform readers that on 15 March the 3.00 pm performance of The Mill On The Floss performed by Shared Experience at the National Museum auditorium has now been rescheduled to 2.00 pm.
