KUWAIT CITY, Mar 19: Around 1,200 workers from Kuwait's biggest oil company went on indefinite strike Saturday defying a ban on work stoppages in the gulf emirate to press for better working conditions, reports AFP.

A senior KOC officials also said the work stoppages were banned in the public sector.

Around 200 workers from the company gathered outside their union headquarters early Saturday in Al-Ahmadi, south of the Kuwaiti capital.

Sarhan said the strike would affect all production sectors as well as transport within three to four days. "The strike action began

A report by bankers trust Australia said the Australian dollar held up reasonably well in the face of the greenback's weakness

On the Reserve Bank of Australia's Trade Weighted Index (TWI), a basket of major trading currencies, the Australian dollar dropped to 51.6 points from 51.9 points a week before.

SINGAPORE DOLLAR: The Singapore dollar ended the week 52 points higher against the US dollar at 1.4108 from 1 4160 a week earlier Sentiment for the US dol lar remains bearish as the market is still unsure of the direction of the greenback and US interest rates, " said a forex dealer Finance Minister Richard Hu has defended the rising value of the Singapore dollar despite warnings by economist such gains could erode competitiveness. The Singapore dollar has appreciated some 16 per cent from average of 1 7445 to the US dollar in 1990 to 1.4606 at the end of last year, according to official figures. HONG KONG DOLLAR: The territory's currency, pegged at 7.80 to the US dollar, closed at 7.7305-7.7315 to the US unit Friday INDONESIAN RUPLAH: The

Indonesian currency closed trading on Priday at 2,215 rupiah to the dollar, or two rupiah weaker than at the closing on Friday the previous

MALAYSIAN RINGGIT: The ringgit fell 24 basis points to end the week lower against the US dollar at 2.5502 from 2.5478 previously.

Dealers attributed the fall to a recovery of dollar positions by offshore banks and maturity of long-term currency bills issued by the government locally.

NEW ZEALAND DOLLAR The New Zealand dollar closed Friday worth 64.92 US cents, up from the 64.47 cents.

It has been at a six year high amidst speculation that the Kiwi is acquiring a reputation as a safe haven currency.

The central reserve bank Thursday confirmed it would be keeping the pressure on interest rates in order to contain any inflationary pressures and to bring down high growth rates. Its actions have been seen as positive for the Kiwi and dealers report further upward pressure is likely.

PHILIPPINE PESO: The Philippine peso steadily appreciated to 25.694 pesos to the US dollar on Friday from 25.948 pesos to the dollar on March 10.

SOUTH KOREAN WON : The won strengthened to 778.70 won per dollar from 783.90 won to the greenback a week ago. Bank officials attributed the surge to traders' expectation of an accelerated influx of dollars in the second half of the year with an improvement in the current-account balance. TAIWAN DOLLAR: The US dollar declined to close Friday at 26.02 Taiwan dollars, down eight Taiwan cents from the previous week's finish of 26.1 Taiwan dollars. Currency deal ers attributed the decline t the weakness of the greenback in overseas markets.

THAI BAHT: The Bank of Thailand's Exchange Equaliza tion Fund on Friday fixed the official mid-rate at 24.73 baht to one US dollar, compared to last week's close of 24.77 baht.
