Pilferages earning bad name for postal dept

By Staff Correspondent

Frequent pilferages from postal mails in recent period are earning bad name for the Bangladesh Postal Service.

People embittered in receiving their parcels in torn and open conditions, regretted that things did not improve despite their repeated appeals to the postal authorities.

In one such incident, Rtn A K D Deen Mohammad Khan, chairman of the Rotary District Scholarship Sub-committee 1994-95, recently sent a letter to the director general of the postal department drawing his attention to a parcel coming from USA, which he had to receive in a torn condition.

The victims of such missing mails feel that a departmental enquiry into the matter and stern action against the pilferers could help stop recurrence of such incidents.
