'Madhusudan a versatile genius'

Deputy Leader of the Jatiya Sangsad Prof A Q M Badruddoza Chowdhury yesterday said Michael Madhusudan Dutt was a versatile genius whose match was seldom found in the world literary arena, reports BSS.

"His multifacet talents found expression at the age of only 19," he said adding that Madhusudan had also shaken off many a superstitions of that period to uphold his thoughts and spirit till his death.

Prof Chowdhury was speaking as chief guest a function arranged by Renaissance Cultural Council to mark the 171st birth anniversary of the poet.

Minister for Information and Commerce M Shamsul Islam was also present as special guest while Dr Ashraf Siddiquee was in the chair.

The function was also addressed by council's executive director Azad Jessory, Dr Momen Chowdhury, Dr Khandker Reazul Huq and K T Zaman, among others.

Michael Madhusudan award-93 was given to Prof Enajuddin Ahmad, Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University, for his outstanding contribution toward education in the country.

Prof Chowdhury appreciated the gesture of the council saying, it was a recognition to a person who deserved such award for his contribution to the education.

He, however, said Madhusudan's talent could be compared to that of Nazrul who proved his worth by emerging like a comet in the realm of literature with an independent identity.
