Preparatory workshop on Beijing confce

A preparatory workshop on the forthcoming World Conference on Women in Beijing was held yesterday at Delduar, Tangail, says a press release.

The Workshop Sub-committee, Beijing NGO Forum '95 organised the workshop.

The main purpose of the workshop, aimed at grassroot women, was to try to identify their problems and amass possible solutions suggested by them. It will also inform the women about the conference and its significance.

The workshop sub-committee has carried out similar workshops in Dinajpur, Jessore, Rajshahi, Chittagong and Barisal with much success. The sub-committee hopes to incorporate the recommendations from these workshops in the status report on women which is being prepared by the Beijing NGO Forum '95.

Bar team meets Biswas

President Abdur Rahman Biswas yesterday emphasised the need for peace and harmony in the society for smooth functioning of democracy and socio-economic development of commonman, reports UNB.

The President was talking to a delegation of Madartpur District Bar Association, led by its president Abdul Mannan Sikder, when it called on him at Bangabhaban.

He said peace and stability are essential for progress and development of the country and understanding and tolerance for flourishing of democracy.

Referring to the recent VE day programmes held in London, Biswas said the world leaders today want global peace which could be achieved, they felt, through understanding and not through hostility.
