CDRB
A seminar entitled 'Village schools in Bangladesh: Caught between Tradition and Change' was held in the city yesterday, says a press release.

The Centre for Development Research, Bangladesh (CDRB) in association with the American Institute of Bangladesh Studies (AIBS) jointly organised the seminar.

Participants at the seminar called for redefining the concept of education through broadening minds, and developing new ideas.

Dr Sharmila S Khan, a visiting senior research fellow of AIBS, presented the key-note paper.

Held at the auditorium of the Women's Voluntary Association, the seminar was attended by a large number of scholars, teachers, journalists and diplomats.

Mizanur Rahman Shelly, chairman, CDRB presided.

IUB
The fortnightly assembly of the Independent University, Bangladesh (IUB) was held on the campus in the city yesterday, says a press release. Noted economist Prof Rehman Sobhan attended the meeting as guest speaker. Prof Rahman reviewed the draft study on development of Bangladesh prepared by the Centre for Policy Dialogue.

Dr A Majid, president of the university also spoke on the occasion.

BCS (Edn) Assoc
A meeting of the BCS general Education Association was held at the conference room of the Ministry of Education in the city yesterday, says a press release.

The meeting decided to take necessary steps, to remove anomalies in promotion, provide selection grade scale, confirm the services of the lecturers by arranging departmental examination, create posts at various levels, and to sanction allowances to the hostel superintendents.

The meeting was also told that the college teachers would be given more opportunities for higher studies, and the ministry will write to the University Grants Commission in this regard.

Irshadul Huq, Secretary, Ministry of Education, presided.
