Move to register dentists as per law of 1980

Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Mirza Ghulam Hafiz said in the city yesterday that measures would be taken to register the dental physicians, according to law of 1980, reports UNB.

He was speaking as the chief guest at the 30th conference of Bangladesh Dental Association at Russian Cultural Centre.

The minister called upon the doctors to ensure health facilities to the people, in the rural area with a view to achieving the goal 'Health for All' by the year 2000.

Presided over by the president of the association, Dr. Abul Hassan, the conference was addressed by State Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism Abdul Mannan and secretary general of Bangladesh Private Medical Practitioners Association, Dr. CM Delwar Rana and others.

Mannan said only 90 doctors graduate from the three dental colleges every year which is too inadequate to meet the demands of the vast population.

Needleart show

By Staff Correspondent

The French Embassy in Dhaka will host an exhibition of needleart works by Bangladeshi women on June 9. Shamsul Islam, Minister for Commerce and Information will inaugurate the exhibition at 5:00 pm at the Gulshan residence of the ambassador, says a press release.

Needleart — one of the typicalities of Bangladeshi embroidery — is a unique art form that combines the finest techniques of needlecrafting and art.

A piece of silk, strengthened by two layers of cotton, is the canvas on which images depicting the emotions of life and nature in exuberant colours are created through millions of ultra-fine hand-stitches. Each square inch of needleart work may contain up to a thousand hand stitches!

4 arrested, arms recovered in city

By Staff Correspondent

Police arrested four young men and recovered arms and ammunition in two separate raids in the city yesterday.

Ramna police arrested three teenagers when they were allegedly preparing for mugging at Circuit House Road in the afternoon.

The arrested were identified as Titu, 16, Babu, 18, and Amiaul, 18.

Police recovered a locally manufactured revolver, three rounds of bullets and a razor from their possession.

Meanwhile, Demra Police arrested one Nazim Ullah and recovered a revolver and six rounds of bullets from a house at Dakshin Dhania in the city.

BAF award ceremony

By Staff Correspondent

The certificate-awarding ceremony of the 44th Junior Command and Staff Training Institute of the Bangladesh Air Force was held at the Air Headquarters Thursday.

Assistant Chief of Air Staff Air Commodore Rezau Karim Talukder distributed certificates and trophies among the successful student-officers.

Air Commodore Talukder addressed the student-officers saying that the need for better management and good leadership increased greatly with the advancement of modern technology in all branches of the defence forces, says on ISPR press release.

Emphasising the training activities, he urged the officers to ensure the best possible utilisation of the equipment procured by hard-earned foreign currency.

Bangladesh Air Force officers, four officers from the Sir Lankan Air Force received certificates for successful completion of the course.

Officials of the Sri Lankan Embassy in Bangladesh and senior BAF officers were present at the ceremony.

Seminar on CHT in city

Recognise minorities' culture language, entity

Discussions at a seminar on 'Chittagong Hill Tracts: Problem and Solution' held in the city yesterday called for the recognition of culture, language and individual entity of all minorities in Bangladesh, reports BSS.

In a set of recommendations adopted after the day-long seminar, held in six simultaneous working sessions at the German Cultural Centre, they also called for expediting the process of repatriation of tribal refugees.

The National Committee for the Protection of Fundamental Rights in Chittagong Hill Tracts organised the seminar in which all the sessions were followed by open discussion on the pros and cons of the problems and their solutions.

The speakers, comprising members of Parliament, politicians, cultural activists, lawyers, literateurs, NGO and tribal representatives, called for dissolving the 'cluster villages' and settling the repatriated refugees in their own lands.

Convenor of the committee, Lutful Rahman Shahjahan was in the chair during the morning session which was addressed, among others, by Rashed Khan Menon MP, Saifuddin Manik of GanoForum, Hasan Imam of Nirmul Committee, Deputy Attorney General AF Hasan Arif and Sharadindu Shekhar Chakma of Liaison Committee, Parbatya Chattagram.

During the first session of the afternoon, Anu Muhammad, Abu Sayeed Khan, KS Mong, Rabishanker Chakma and ZI Khan discussed the issue of political solution.

Human rights related issues were discussed by Sara Hossain, Nizamul Huq Nasim, Kabita Chakma, Adilur Rahman Khana, while the issue of repatriation of refugees were discussed by Dr. Abrar Choudhury and Salim Samad.

Land related issues were discussed by Raja Devashish Roy, and cultural issues by Akhtaruzzaman Ilyas, Farhad Mazhar and Bijoyketan Chakma.

Furthermore, the speakers stressed the need for continuing the ceasefire and peace talks for reaching a solution to the problem. In this regard, they called for holding the talks in Dhaka with the participation of all political parties for a national consensus.
