Student murder case

JU to seek AG's opinion on punitive action

By JU Correspondent The disciplinary board of Jahangirnagar University (JU) is to seek the opinion of the Attorney General whether there will be any legal problem if punitive measures are taken against the "killers" of a student. The members of the board met on Tuesday after the syndicate had asked them to suggest steps against those responsible for the killing of Dipu, a JCD activist.

Dipu was murdered in November last year allegedly by his rivals in the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), the BNP's student wing.

The meeting also asked the Proctor to prepare a list of terrorist activities on the campus till date, sources said.
