She conveyed her best wishes for Juppe's good health, happiness and long life and the continued peace, progress and prosperity of the friendly people of France.

Bibi Productions launched

By Staff Correspondent
Bibi Russell, the international fashion model and dress designer, is now all set to make her mark in the world of advertising in this country.

Bibi Productions, the latest venture by the model-turned-entrepreneur, was formally launched yesterday in the city amid a glittery fashion show featuring summer casuals, designed by Bibi herself.

"Bibi has already done a lot in a short time to promote local fabrics, specially the Grameen Check, both at home and abroad," Prof Md Yunus, the Managing Director of the Grameen Bank, said while inaugurating the advertising agency at Bibi's Motijheel office yesterday afternoon.

When asked about the raison d'être of her new company, Bibi said: "Many local manufacturers now have to resort to foreign agencies to advertise their products. Our objective is to produce competitive ads locally for local products."

The agency, with Bibi in the helm, has a young, dynamic team, comprised mostly of art students, to keep it afloat.

Abdus Sattar died on July 11. He was 62. Sattar was one of the leaders of the Language Movement and a noted student leader of the 1950's.
