BCL (S-P), JCD demand DUCSU polls date

By DU Correspondent

The Pro-Awami League Bangladesh Chhatra League and the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal, the student wing of the ruling BNP, held separate rallies on the Dhaka University campus yesterday demanding immediate announcement of a date for the DUCSU poll.

The BCL leaders said, they have been agitating for a long time, demanding DUCSU elections in a violence-free campus where the activists of all student organisations would have equal rights to carry out their programmes in each DU hall.

Enamul Hoq Shamim, president of the BCL central committee told the rally that this is their heart-felt demand, and the university authorities have failed to secure a congenial atmosphere for holding the elections. The speakers at the rally said, BCL is not afraid of participating in election since it has come into existence through polls.

Referring to a statement of JCD that they would gherao the residence of Sheikh Hasina if she opposes the DUCSU elections, Shamim said that BCL would gherao that of Prime Minister Khaleda Zia if she does not accept the ten-point demands of the students immediately.

BCL leaders said before announcing the date the DU authorities will have to ensure co-existence of all students in all the halls.

They alleged they have not been able to hold their political programmes in some halls of the university for a long time.

The Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal also held a rally on the campus to press for its demand for holding of DUCSU elections.

Addressing the rally, the general secretary of JCD and DUCSU GS Najim Uddin Alam said, the campus situation is much better than before. The JCD leaders blamed BCL activists for the deteriorating campus situation.

Meanwhile, the Bangladesh Chhatra Union also held a rally on the campus and called for immediate cancellation of a reported recent order regarding the admission of the wives and children of the teachers and officials of the university.
