DUCSU polls JCD blames BCL for postponements

The Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal held a rally on the Dhaka University campus demanding a fresh date for holding the DUCSU elections.

The JCD leaders at the rally blamed the Bangladesh Chhatra League for frequent postponement of the DUCSU elections by their terrorist activities on the campus.

The last DUCSU election was held on June 6, 1990. The legitimacy of the DUCSU expired on June 5, 1991.

The JCD leaders said, they had been demanding DUCSU and Hall Union elections for the last four years.

The university authorities had announced fresh dates twice — once in 1991 and the other in 1994. The JCD leaders said that they had submitted their nomination papers on both occasions. The elections, however, could not be held owing to violence of the BCL, the alleged.

The meeting, held in front of the DUCSU building, was addressed by JCD DU unit president Mosarrat Hossain, central committee president Fazlul Haq Milan and vice president Moniruzzaman Monir.
