StanChart relocates Cig branch

Standard Chartered Bank (StanChart) will formally relocate its Chittagong branch to 33. Agrabad Commercial Area today, says a press release.

The Minister for Fisheries and Livestock Abdullah Al Noman will inaugurate the branch.

Peter Fowler. British High Commissioner to Bangladesh Amir Khasru Mahmud Choudhury MP and Chairman. Chittagong Stock Exchange. John Filmeridis, Regional General Manager Designate for Standard Chartered Bank. Middle East and South Asia (MESA) Region will be the special guests.

Commenting on this. Geoff Williams. Chief Executive of StanChart Bangladesh said. "In moving to Agrabad we intend to be back in the centre of the growth in business and prosperity. Chittagong is poised to enjoy. Though known as the second city of Bangladesh, Chittagong handles 80 per cent of the country's trade through its port. Trade is very much the business of Standard Chartered Bank and we plan to offer the very best service for our international trading clients. For our personal clients also Standard Chartered will bring new benefits not least with Chittagong's first ATM which I hope to see installed within the next few weeks. So I am confident that this building will provide not only aesthetic pleasure but also a source of growing value to the Chittagong Community."

Standard Chartered Bank has been in Chittagong since 1948, opening in Sadarghat as SCB's Head Office for what was then East Pakistan.
