Hiroshima Day today

Hiroshima Day, commemorating the first atomic bomb attack on the Japanese city in 1945, will be observed today in Bangladesh as elsewhere in the world, reports UNB.

Tens of hundreds of innocent people died while many more were maimed when the US forces made the bomb attack on the day against their foes which put an end to the World War II.

Various organisations have drawn up programmes to observe the day with renewed appeal for disarming the nations for a peaceful world.

The Bangladesh Medical Association (BMA) has arranged a discussion on the occasion at 9 am at the Dr Milan Hall of PG Hospital at Shabbagh in the city.

Rule nisi on govt for detaining Lions official

By Staff Correspondent

The High Court has issued a rule nisi on the government to show cause within three weeks as to why the detention of Mamun Parvez, President-elect of Lions Club Dhaka, should not be declared unlawful and of no legal effect.

A division bench of the HC comprising Justice A M Mahmudur Rahman and Justice Mahfuzur Rahman issued the rule following a writ petition filed by Shamina Parvez, wife of the detainee and moved by Barrister Rabia Bhuyan.

Mamun Parvez was arrested at the Zia International Airport on July 12 on his return from the 78th International Conference of Lions Club International in Seoul.

He was released and arrested again on July 20 after being served with a detention order for 120 days from the Home Ministry under Section 3(1) (a) of the Special Powers Act.

Alarm was raised when people claiming to be 'Lions' were deported from South Korean airport. A number of 'Lions' were sent back to Dhaka.

DARK JUSTICE
Judge Nicholas Marshall (Ramy Zada) is tired of seeing guilty men slip through the cracks of the judicial system. Although he presides over his court within the strictest letter of the law, he keeps coming up against technicalities and backroom deals that make it possible for criminals to go free. To a man like Nick Marshall, it's a totally unacceptable situation.
