Concern over filling up of Dhanmondi lake

By Staff Correspondent
The Dhanmondi Housewives and Businessmen Association has expressed its deep concern over the filling up of the Dhanmondi lake for the construction of flats for government officials.
In an emergency meeting on August 7, the association leaders said the lake is a major recreation centre for a wide range of people of the capital.
"The decision to fill up the lake proves a vested quarter is active to destroy the beauty of the area and deprive tourists, anglers and others of entertainment and recreational facilities," speakers at the meeting said.

Disappointment!

By Staff Correspondent
Sanjida Hossain of the Ideal High School, was not entirely content with the second position she secured in the combined merit list of the Social Sciences group in the Dhaka Board SSC examinations with 859 marks.
"Initially, the school had informed me that I topped the list. When the mistake was discovered, naturally, I felt disappointed," the girl who always came first in her class told The Daily Star.
Disappointments aside, Sanjida is looking forward to studying commerce and business administration, perhaps overseas — if she can secure a scholarship.
Sanjida criticised the session jams that so often mar higher education in our country and fully supports abolition of the "question bank" system.
"The system limits our education. It made us forget everything we had learnt up to the eighth grade and now, I shall have a hard time at college," she rued.
As to the secret of her recent success, she revealed: "I went over a lot of past question papers and took frequent mock exams to familiarise myself with the exam technique."
