5th Wage Board BPSF welcomes appointment of chairman
Leaders of the Bangladesh Press Sramik Federation (BPSF) have hailed the appointment of a chairman of the 5th Wage Board for the journalists and employees of newspapers, says a press release.
The leaders called upon the government to constitute the full board immediately by taking representatives from the owners and employees of the newspaper industry.
They also demanded declaration of 60 per cent dearness allowance for journalists and other employees of the newspapers.
Mumia's death penalty protested
By Staff Correspondent
Mumia Abu Jamal Jibonrakkiya Andolon, a platform of 16 organisations which was formed earlier to protest the death sentence given to the Afro American journalist, held a protest rally in front of the Jatiya Press Club in the city yesterday.
A procession was also brought out in the city demanding withdrawal of the death penalty which was scheduled to be executed by ten last night.
With Reazur Rahman, chief coordinator of the Andolon, the rally was also addressed by CPB president Shahidullah Chowdhury, and BSD leader AFM Mahbubul Haq.

Seminar on sustainable development at BISS

A day-long seminar on "Bangladesh: Search for Sustainable Development" was held at the BISS auditorium in the city Wednesday, reports UNB.
Bangladesh Institute of International and Strategic Studies (BISS) organised the seminar to initiate a process of dialogue among young scholars to reflect their views on the country's existing and future problems and challenges.
Director General of BISS Major General Ghulam Quadir inaugurated the seminar while Professor Khalilur Rahman of Trieste University of Italy addressed the seminar as special guest.
Four papers were presented at the seminar split into four working sessions.
BISS Research Associate Sabir Ahmed presented a paper on "Sustainable Democracy in Bangladesh: Problems and Prospects". Associate Editor of the Financial Express Sabir Mustafa took part in the discussion.
In second session, BISS Research Associate Habibur Rahman Khan presented a paper on "Environment and Sustainable Development in Bangladesh". Jahangirnagar University teacher Mohammad Sahedur Rashid took part in the discussion.
Dhaka University teacher Mahboob Morshed presented a paper on "Political Regime and Fiscal Behaviour: The Experiences of Bangladesh" in the third session.
In the fourth session, Dhaka University teacher Ruhul Amin presented a paper on "Economic Diplomacy of Bangladesh: A Post-Cold War Perspective".
The Poet Sarojini Naidu invited essays on the life and works of poet Sarojini Naidu, reports BSS.
Two prizes worth Tk 3000 and Tk 2000 will be awarded to the first and second winners respectively.
The essay should not exceed 2000 words and should accompany two copies of black-and-white passport-size photographs of the writers.
Typed in double space it should be addressed to the chairman of the council and reach House 251/N, Road 23, Dhanmondi, Dhaka by October 15.

Michael Novak due today
Michael Novak, an American philosopher of religion, author and recipient of the Templeton Prize for Progress in Religion in 1994, will arrive in the city today on a 8-day visit to Bangladesh, reports UNB.
Novak, a former US ambassador to the Human Rights Commission in Geneva, will dedicate the new library building at Notre Dame College in memory of his brother, on August 21.
During his stay, he will speak on human rights, democracy and capitalism to be sponsored by the US Information Service (USIS).
He will also take part in a dialogue on "Capitalism for the Poor, Capitalism for Democracy" on August 23 at 3 pm at Sheraton Hotel, organised by the Centre for Policy Dialogue.

ECHO aid for flood victims
The European Community Humanitarian Office (ECHO) has allocated an emergency grant of 1.4 million ECU — approximately Taka 7.6 crore for the flood affected people of Bangladesh, particularly in the Brahmaputra Basin region, says a press release.
ECHO, set up in 1992 as an independent service under the European Commission, is responsible for managing humanitarian aid to all non-EU countries.
ECHO grant would be used for house repairing, agricultural rehabilitation, emergency food distribution and to provide cash for various infrastructural works. These works would be implemented through European NGOs and local NGOs working in the flood affected areas, it is decided.

One commits suicide
By DMCH Correspondent
A mid-aged man reportedly committed suicide by hanging himself inside the Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) early hours yesterday.
The victim Chittaranjan Sarker, 30, a carpenter by profession, hanged himself with a torn shirt from a water pipe of a bathroom at Ward No 20.
Sarker from Hularchar, Mirardnagar under Comilla district was admitted to the DMCH with jaundice and liver complications at about 2 pm Wednesday.
His wife Renu Bala said that the family had been going through hardship and Sarker, father of two, had become frustrated with his serious ailments.
