Over 100 ulema join AL

Awami League President Sheikh Hasina yesterday said the movement of her party is to establish justice and legitimate rights of the people, reports UNB.

"It is the teaching of Islam to fight for justice and the Awami League has been struggling for justice, welfare and rights of the people," she told a joining meeting of Ales at the party's Dhanmondi office in the afternoon.

More than 100 Ales, imams and madrasah teachers led by Maulana Shahidul Islam and Maulana Abul Kalam met Hasina and joined her party.

The Awami League chief said Islam is the religion of peace, equality and justice, saying that there was no room for communal feeling in Islam.

"Some vested quarters are using the religion for their personal interests and spreading the venom of communalism by misinterpreting it," Hasina said.

Maijbhandari condemns 'attack' on Darbar Sharif

By Staff Correspondent

Najibul Bashar Maijbhandari, a former Awami League MP who joined BNP recently, has condemned the "attack" on the Maijbhandar Darbar Sharif at Fatikchhari in Chittagong on Thursday.

In a statement yesterday he said the AL workers launched the attack following a political decision by him. There was no link between the Darbar Sharif my political decision.

He said the Darbar Sharif is a non-political institution. But the unruly workers of the AL, hurt the religious sentiment of the Muslims by attacking it. "This reflected the party's fascist character," he added.

He demanded of the administration to take punitive measures against those responsible for the attack.

Use new tech in shrimp culture: Noman

CHITTAGONG, Aug 18: Fisheries and Livestock Minister Abdullah Al Noman said that there was enough land for shrimp cultivation in the country and opportunity to use technology through joint venture initiative in developing this sector, reports BSS.

While exchanging views with the 15-member Singapore Marine Food Industries Association at the local Circuit House yesterday the minister explained the facilities available in the country towards shrimp cultivation.

In this context, he said use of technology and proper management could help develop this sector.

The visiting members of the Singapore Shrimp Cultivation Association showed keen interest on joint venture projects on the establishment of hatchery, factories for preparing food with shrimp and shrimp processing.

Meanwhile Fisheries and Livestock Minister Abdullah Al Noman has said the holy Eid-e-Miladunnabi remains that the great Prophet Hazrat Muhammad (SM) had fought against all kinds of social ills throughout his life.

He was speaking at a mil-lad mahfil and discussion meeting organised by the Chittagong Division Tanklorry Owners Association in observance of Eid-e-Miladunnabi.

Private sectors can help remove poverty: Moyeen

An open discussion on "Participatory Perspective Plan: 1995-2000" was held with private entrepreneurs at the conference room of National Economic Council in the city yesterday, reports BSS.

State Minister for Planning Dr A Moyeen Khan, who presided over the function, stressed the need for a clear conception as to what should be the environment for the private sector to expedite the national progress.

He said areas of both private and public sectors had been expanded in the country as per the necessity of age.

Referring to the perspective plan, the minister said the main aim of this plan is to remove poverty through creation of fresh areas of jobs both in the cities and rural areas.

Presenting the draft of the plan in the open discussion, the member of the general economy division of Planning Commission Dr Mohiuddin Khan Alamgir said the perspective plan had fixed certain strategies and objectives to make individual entrepreneurship more creative and productive.

A coordination meeting of the advisory council and district units of Shikha O Sangskriti Kendra was held on Thursday in the city with Justice K M Sobhan in the chair.

The meeting resolved to work for strengthening the civic society through mutual understanding among different sectors of the society.

The meeting was attended by Prof Anisuzzaman, Prof Kabir Chowdhury, Santosh Gupta, Abdullah al Muti Sharfuddin, Dr Anisur Rahman, Mahfuz Anam, Rahat Khan, Asaduzzaman Nur, Rasheda K Chowdhury and Dr F R Mahmud Hasan.
