Disruption in ISD tele link likely

Technical fault in Talibabad earth satellite station may create temporary disturbance in ISD phone call. T&T authorities cautioned Saturday, reports UNB.

Out of 313 circuits, 174 went out of order due to technical fault in Low Noise Amplifier (LNA) of Talibabad earth station on Friday.

As alternative arrangement, 174 circuits will be working through Mohakhali and Betunia earth satellite stations and this may need several dialing to get expected connection.

Appeal

Former president of the executive committee of the Bangladesh Students Society Md Mottahar Hossain is seriously ill. Both his kidneys are damaged. He is struggling for survival under the care of Dr Humayun Rashid.

His kidney surgery will cost nearly Tk five lakh. Coming of a lower middle class family, he is unable to bear this expenditure by himself. He now makes an appeal to the affluent section of the society to come to his rescue. Anybody willing to help this distressed soul can send donation to the following address: Md Mottahar Hossain Milan, Janata Bank, Rayer Bazar Branch, Dhaka, Account No CD 1445.

Kabbo Kunjo

The Kabbo Kunjo, held a discussion meeting on the life and teachings of Prophet Muhammad (SM) on Thursday in the city with Sham-suzoha Chowdhury in the chair, says a press release.

Dr Serajul Islam Chowdhury, Professor of English, Dhaka University attended the meeting as chief guest.

"Prophet Muhammad (SM) had changed the evil customs and habits of the Arabs by his teaching," Prof Chowdhury said.

Prof Raushan Ara Haque spoke on the life of the Prophet.

Kalimur Rahman, general secretary of the writers' salon read a paper on the life, preaching, suffering and remarkable success of the Prophet.

Nari Adhikar Andolon

Nari Adhikar Andolon, a voluntary organisation for women's rights, made a strong plea to the government to be vocal against adopting only law and plan of action which contravene Islamic rules in the upcoming Beijing conference for women, reports BSS.

The organisation said yesterday that it had adopted a four point proposal at a seminar held on the occasion of Siratunnabi on Friday.

The organisation also demanded that the government take more initiatives in the Beijing conference with regard to honour and rights of women as per Islamic law.

The seminar was presided over by Prof Chemon Ara.

Meet on advancement of women held

A review meeting on 'Advancement of Women in Bangladesh' was held in Dhaka Saturday with the donor agencies to exchange views on important policy issues, reports UNB.

State Minister for Women and Children Affairs Sarwari Rahman chaired the meeting at the National Economic Council (NEC) Bhaban. In her statement, the State Minister said that a 42-member National Council with the Prime Minister as Chairperson had been formed to formulate policies for development of women and to oversee women in development (WID) related activities.

She said WID's focal points had been designated in the relevant sectoral ministries and agencies to coordinate and take care of gender interest in respective sectors.

Referring to roles being played by NGOs as supplementary and complementary to efforts of the government agencies, the State Minister said that a large number of NGOs, community based organisations and private voluntary organisations were playing an increasingly important role in the development of the country in recent years.
