FEMA concerned

*By Staff Correspondent The Fair Election

Monitoring Alliance has expressed concern at the news hampering the preparation of the new voters list due to transfer of some government employees.

Feroz M Hasan, secretary general of the FEMA, in a statement vesterday said that the voters register is a prerequisite for holding elections and an accurate and flawless one is obvious for ensuring fair polls.

Terming the Election Commission as an independent constitutional body he said, no one should be allowed to interfere in the matters of it.

He called upon the EC to enroll all eligible voters.

Create public opinion against hartal: Saifur

Finance Minister M Saifur Rahman vesterday called upon all patriotic forces to create widespread public opinion against negative politics as being pursued by a section of opposition parties, reports BSS.

The politics of hartals and siege are not desirable to the people, he added.

The finance minister was addressing the leaders of different socio-cultural organisations from South Surma and Fenchugani who called on him in Dhaka Thursday under the leadership of Abdul Malek, General Secretary of the UK branch of the BNP. Referring to the hartal call by the Opposition in September 2 and 3, the finance minister said that the politics of hartals, had failed to bring about any good even for the opposition. Inspite of this, the opposition parties have resorted to destructive activities over the years, he
