IBA graduation ceremony held

By DU Correspondent

The graduation ceremony of the 26th batch of the Masters of Business Administration (MBA), Dhaka University was held yesterday at the IBA auditorium.

Some 66 MBA graduates of two batches received their certificates from acting Vice-Chancellor Prof Shahiduddin Ahmed.

The Institute of Business Administration (IBA) is one of the few departments of the Dhaka University which has been arranging graduation ceremony over the last couple of years.

Presided over by Dr Abdul Rab, director, IBA, the ceremony was attended by the teachers and students of the institute and the parents of the graduates.

Salman F Rahman, President, FDCI, who attended the function as special guest in his speech said, the country is now passing a hard time, specially in economic sector.

High growth of economy is a must right this moment for our survival as a nation, he observed.

For speedy growth of economy we have to ensure huge domestic investment as well as management support," he said adding that the MBA graduates can play a significant role in management sector which will help the country develop its economy.

He said the privileged group has a lot to do for the society.

Referring to the session jam and other problems of the university Prof Ahmed said, IBA is the institute where there is no session jam.

Since its inception in 1966 IBA has made a remarkable progress in the field of business administration in the country, he said and hoped that the MBA graduates will play more effective role in the days ahead.

The Graduation ceremony was followed by a cultural show.

Matlub's paintings on display

By Staff Correspondent

The centrepiece of the exhibit, a 305cm by 90cm abstract creation in mixed-medium, bears the show's title.

Renowned artist and director of the Institute of Fine Arts (IFA), DU, Rafiqun Nabi (Ronobi), inaugurated the ten-day show at the National Museum yesterday afternoon.

On his canvases, Matlub, an associate professor at the IFA, portrays our society, culture and history, particularly the War of Liberation, with an inherent social consciousness.

Matlub works in a variety of media — water colour, oil, ink, aquatint even ball-point pen — nothing is beneath this artist.

Perhaps, that is why his paintings are not priced, although, any proceedings from the current show will go towards helping flood victims.

The opening was attended by a number of personalities from the world of art and literature, including poet Asad Chowdhury, Prof Syed Manzoorul Islam, Kazi Feroq and Khushi Kabir.

Australian press team meets DRU members

A group of Australian journalists had an informal meeting with members of the Dhaka Reporters Unity (DRU) at the Jatiya Press Club in the city yesterday, reports BSS.

The group was led by Lawrence Apps, Associate Professor of Journalism of the Curtin University of Technology in Perth while the Dhaka Reporters Unity was headed by its president Shaiful Kabir.

They discussed various aspects of journalism, particularly the reporting side, both in Bangladesh and Australia.

They also exchanged views on the possibility of establishing a rapport between reporters of both the countries.

Madhu Purnima observed

Bangladesh Buddhist Federation yesterday observed Madhu Purnima with due religious fervour, reports BSS.

The organisation celebrated the day at International Bouddha Bihar in the city. The function was presided over by Principal Gayasree Mohathero.

A discussion on "The significance of Madhu Purnima and humanism of lord Buddha" was held.

President of the federation M L Barua and vice-president Martando Pratap Barua participated in the discussion.

The speakers highlighted the message of equality, harmony and non-violence of Buddha and called for peace and stability in the world following his ideals.
