'Ibsen woman' on her way to Dhaka

By Staff Correspondent

The Centre for Asian Theatre, Bangladesh will present a solo stage performance by eminent Norwegian artist Junni Dahr in the city on Sept 14-15.

Dahr who is due to arrive here shortly will perform at 6:30 pm on September 14 and at 11 am on September 15 at the British Council auditorium.

The Royal Norwegian Em-

Junni Dahr, who is due to arrive here shortly will perform at 6:30 pm on September 14 and at 11 am on September 15 at the British Council auditorium.

bassey has sponsored the programme. She will also conduct a workshop on 'Analysis of Acting Style and Technique' on Sept 22-23, arranged exclusively for the local play rights, directors, actors and actresses.

A leading Norwegian theatre and film actress, she has performed in many of the great classics from Shakespeare to Ibsen and Chekov, as well as modern experimental drama.

'Ibsen Women' was conceived in the United States in 1988 while she was touring with a similar one-woman production the 'Joan of Arc'. Being a Norwegian actress, she was often questioned about Henrik Ibsen's drama.

This inspired her to present the Norwegian master through improvisation based on fragments of 'Ibsen women' which is now being performed on empty stage with minimum decoration and props.

'Govt keeping secret liaison with Jamaat'

By Staff Correspondent

The Ekatturer Ghatak Dalal Nirmul Committee yesterday said, the government is keeping a 'secret liaison' with Jamaat-e-Islami by not trying the 'war-criminal' Golam Azam and withdrawing the 'false' cases against the 24 organisers of the 'Gono Aclat'.

Shawkat Osman, acting president of the central advisory committee said this while addressing a joint meeting of the central working committee and city unit of the Nirmul Committee held at the committee's office in the city.

Osman demanded that the government repeal the voting rights of the war criminals and try them in a special tribunal.

Condemned

President of Mohila Awami League Begum Ivy Rahman and General Secretary Prof Khaleda Khanum yesterday condemned the attempt on the life of housewife Iti for dowry, reports ISS.

Notice

To : All BGMEA Members,
Survey of Child Labour in the garment factories started on 28.8.95 is progressing satisfactorily. Attention of BGMEA has been drawn to newsitems published in certain newspapers alleging termination of child workers from some factories in the interim period inspite of our request for not terminating any child labour before completion of the survey. On enquiry no specific case of termination could be cited. Under the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) it is the explicit responsibility of the member units of BGMEA not to terminate any child worker until adequate facilities for their schooling and rehabilitation is set up. If meanwhile any child worker has been terminated, his particulars including name/address together with supporting records may be sent to the standing committee on child labour, BGMEA so that he can be covered in the schooling programme.
