Call to emphasise on disaster preparedness

Speakers at a workshop yesterday laid emphasis on disaster preparedness along side post-disaster management to minimise damage. caused by natural calamities. reports BSS.

State Minister for Disaster Management and Relief Harun-al-Rashid attended the workshop as chief guest, or ganised jointly by Bangladesh Disaster Preparedness Centre (BDPC) and PACT/PRIP at BARC auditorium.

The state minister said through effective preparedness we can reduce the extent of damages of lives and property caused by disasters.

Rashid said the government has formed a disaster management bureau with the assistance of UNDP which will start its operation in full swing within a short period.

Director of BDPC Saidur Rahman was the keynote speaker of the workshop, titled 'empowerment of poor in disaster management' while director of USAID Richard M Brown, head of AMOD of British High Commission JHS Chard Director General of Disaster Management Department Akramul Islam, took part in the discussion.

Executive Director o PACT/PRIP Aroma Goon chaired the function.

Saidur Rahman said although Bangladesh receives huge amount of foreign aid for disasters almost all of the assistances are spent in postdisaster rehabilitation activi

Chard said, an effective preparedness system should be developed in Bangladesh to ensure the proper use of the donors' money.

Goon said, the government, NGOs and the donors now realise that disaster management should be taken as a permanent and regular programme as the country is by nature a disaster prone

Representatives of 55 NGOs from different parts o the country took part in the day-long workshop.
