Loko Natyadal's new production
By Staff Correspondent

A new production of Budhadev Basu's mythological work, 'Tapashuti-o-Tarangini' will be staged in the city later this month.

Loko Natyadal, a local theatre group has produced the play, says a press release.

Technical performances of the play have already been staged. And after numerous rehearsals, Natyadal is now ready to perform it in front of an audience, it added.

The exact date and venue for the performance, the group's eighteenth, will be announced shortly.

Liakat Ali Laki, the group's leader, is directing the play. He is also in charge of the music and stage planning.

An appeal
Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists (BFUJ) and Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) yesterday called upon the government to take necessary steps to send abroad Suva Rahman, an eminent journalist for proper treatment of his heart diseases, reports BSS.

In a joint statement BFUJ president Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury and secretary general M Shahjahan Mia and DUJ president Abul Kalam Azad and general secretary Azizul Islam Bhuiyan said that the country's heart specialists have suggested to send Suva Rahman abroad immediately. The journalists leaders said that it was not possible on the part of Rahman's family to bear the expensive cost of his treatment.

Biswas apprised of OIC progress
President Abdur Rahman Biswas yesterday reiterated Bangladesh's commitment to work for strengthening the Islamic Ummah and assured support and cooperation to the OIC, reports BSS.

President Biswas was exchanging views with Dr. Hamid Al Gabid, Secretary General of the OIC when he called on him at Bangabhaban yesterday. Assistant Secretary General of the OIC for Economic Affairs Osman Nasirou Othman was also present.

Biswas said that the establishment of OIC about 25 years back was a historic decision of the Muslim world. Since then the organisation worked for the promotion of solidarity among Muslim states and strengthening co-operation in the socio-economic, cultural and scientific areas, he added.

The OIC secretary general informed President Biswas of the progress of various OIC programmes including the recent Kuala Lumpur meeting and the next meeting to be held in Turkey. He also briefly pointed out the achievement of the OIC in building the image of the Islamic world. He appreciated the recent initiative of the Prime Minister of Bangladesh for holding a special summit on Bosnia-Herzegovina. He said that the Islamic Institute of Technology (IIT) has been functioning very effectively and thanked the government for its support and cooperation.

Secretary to the President, Ataul Haq, military secretary to the President, Major General Ruhul Alam Chowdhury and Dr Abdul Matin Patwari, Director General of the IIT were present on the occasion.
