The Islamia Eye hospital collected a cornea from Sandhani for a token fee of Tk 500 for Reazul Karim for transplantation in the same hospital, where a nominal amount is charged for such cases. The patient, however, was transferred to a private clinic on the specific recommendation of a hospital doctor to be operated upon at the cost of Tk 50,000. The relevant eye specialist, when contacted, refused to comment. Even after corneal transplantation on 18.5.92 and a prolonged treatment under the same doctor at his private clinic Reazul Karim, a 30 year-old man from Kushtia, has virtually remained blind. According to the available documents, in an incident in June 1990 Reazul Karim's eyes were damaged when lime was rubbed on them
