Rajshahi zoo in the soup

RAJSHAHI, Sept 29: Rajshahi central park and zoo lack proper maintenance as the Zila Parishad has been running a deficit of Tk 16 lakh every year, reports UNB.

According to official sources, the annual budget for the maintenance of the park is Tk 28 lakh as against an income of Tk 12 lakh. The deficit is met from the Zila Parishad budget though the park has nothing to do with the recreational facilities of the urban people.

The Zila Parishad is not taking any plan for the development of the park as Rajshahi City Corporation is now responsible for the management of the park.

At present, 41 employees including two officers are enrolled to look after some 31 kinds of animals and 11 species of birds of the park which was established by the side of the river Padma in 72 on an area of 27.66 acres with a view to make it as a tourist resort.

However, the park authority has been incurring the loss as the income could not be increased. The number of visitors has also fallen now a days due to want of recreational facilities. No development plan has
