Army chief returns

Chief of Army Staff, Lieutenant General Abu Saleh Mohammad Nasim returned home yesterday from Saudi Arabia, says an ISPR press release.

He performed Umrah and Ziarat of the Rauza Mubarak of the Prophet Hazrat Mohammad (SM) on his way back from an official visit to Kuwait. He visited Kuwait at the invitation of the Chief of Staff of the Kuwait Armed Forces. He led a five-member military delegation during his visit to Kuwait from September 30 to October 4.

During his stay in Kuwait, Gen Nasim called on the Emir and the Crown Prince and Prime Minister of Kuwait. He also met Chief of Staff of Kuwait Armed Forces.

General Nasim also met the members of Bangladesh Army working with the Kuwait Armed Forces and visited the Bangladesh battalion working as part of the United Nations Iraq-Kuwait Observer Mission (UNIKOM).

Nizami asks govt to sit with Opposition

Jamaat leaders yesterday warned that the government would lose its grip on the country's political situation if it failed to concede to the opposition demand for election under a caretaker government by October 15, reports UNB.

Addressing a meeting held at the north gate of Baitul Mokarram mosque the party Secretary General Maulana Matur Rahman Nizami urged the ruling party to sit with oppositions to consider demand for caretaker government to enable people to exercise their right of franchise freely.

"We hope that BNP will behave politically and implement our demand for caretaker government by October 15 to evade political situation getting bad to worse," Nizami said.

Referring to autocratic attitude of BNP government, Nizami said it did not avail any political opportunity to reach a consensus on any issue in the interest of the nation.

This government failed to pay due respect to multiparty parliamentary democracy, Nizami said adding that

Bangladesh troupe performs in Beijing

The Bangladesh cultural team now visiting China in connection with the 20th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries enthralled the audiences by their stage performances there, reports BSS.

Chinese vice-minister for cultural affairs, Bangladesh envoy to China, high officials of Chinese government and city elite attended the performance of Bangladesh troupe in Beijing.

The troupe is expected to return home on October 13.

Plea to call off 96-hr hartal

Nationalist Lawyers' Forum, Bangladesh, yesterday urged the opposition leaders to call off their 96-hour hartal from October 16 and resolve the political impasse through negotiations, reports BSS.

The forum in a statement signed by its member-secretary Abdul Wadud Khandker, expressed the hope that the opposition leaders would consider the views expressed by leaders of public opinion, business community, intellectuals and journalists and particularly people from all walks of life to give up the 'path of confrontation.'

Directive to repair roads in N-dists

Communications Minister Oli Ahmed yesterday directed the authorities concerned to start immediate reconstruction of the roads damaged by floods, especially in the country's north-western region, reports BSS.

Residing over a review meeting on maintenance and reconstruction of damaged roads by recent floods at the Rail Bhaban, the minister said that communication had to be reestablished speedy reconstruction of roads, bridges and culverts damaged by the flood.

'Declare N-dists calamity zone'

Dinajpur Bibhag Bastobayon o Unnayan Parishad has demanded that the flood-hit northern region be declared a calamity zone, says a press release.

The body has formed a relief committee with M Zillur Rahman, PRO, Bangla Academy as its convener.

Non-govt primary teachers stage hunger strike

A group of non-government primary school teachers Saturday staged a dawn-to-dusk hunger strike in front of the Jatiya Press Club demanding nationalisation of their jobs.

The Bangladesh Non-Government Primary School Teachers' Association organised the programme and also plans to observe hunger strike on October 23-24 and November 1-2 in the city.

In a statement, Acting President of the Association Shamsul Alam and Secretary General Akkas Ali Sheikh said they would announce the next course of their agitation programme on November 2 if the demand was not met by this time.

Probarana Purnima observed in Ctg

CHITTAGONG, Oct 8: Members of the Buddhist community here observed Probarana Purnima with due solemnity and religious fervour today, reports BSS.

Purnima programme included recitation from the Tripitak, breaking of fasting, pindadan, shilagrahan, pradip puja, religious congregation at all Buddhist temples, blood donation and discussion on the significance of Probarana Purnima.

Buddhist temples at Enayet Bazar, Devpahar, Kapasgola, Momin Road, Agrabad and other Buddhist populated areas were illuminated. A large number of Buddhists in festive attire visited the temples.

Strike called off

The Bangladesh Ministerial Karmachari Samity yesterday announced postponement of its three-day strike from today at thana, district and divisional level, reports BSS.

The decision of the postponement was taken by the samity leaders following a meeting with the Home Minister Abdul Matin Chowdhury.

A 21-member delegation led by its president Mohammad Lalman Dewan and secretary-general Mohammad Bahauddin called on the home minister at his official residence and discussed with him the 11-point demands of the samity.

Death anniversary

The eleventh anniversary of death of Amin Ahmed Chowdhury, former assistant editor of the Bangladesh Times, will be observed today, reports BSS.

The former correspondent of Voice of America, world service and the British daily, the Guardian, Amin Chowdhury died of heart attack on October 9, 1985 at the age of 40.

Quran Khwani will be held at his residence at 47 Purana Paltan Lane and Milad Mahfil will be held at Purana Paltan Lane Mosque in the city after Asar prayers.

Relatives, friends and admirers of Amin Chowdhury have been requested to attend the Milad mahfil.

New Series: Firm Friends

Sunday 8th October at 11:30 BST

Starting this week, STAR Plus presents a new drama series, Firm Friends, starring top Indian actress Madhur Jaffrey and British actress the Bille Whiteley.

Rose (Whiteley) is a middle-class housewife who has devoted all of her adult life to her husband, John and children. But one night her husband takes all their saving and leaves the house without any explanation. Now Rose has to struggle to survive on her own. It suddenly dawns on her that she's a fifty-year-old woman with no work experience, in a harsh job market.

Unexpectedly, Rose's most supportive friend proves to be Jayshree (Jaffrey), the Indian woman who's cleaned for her for years. Both are keen cooks, and in a moment of madness — or inspiration — and with their families' enthusiastic support, the two women decide to go into the fast food business by opening a small shop. Finding that culinary talent is not enough, they are joined by Maggie Cole, a pushy young woman with big ideas, who puts their business on course and becomes a partner herself. Together, they form a unstoppable combination.
