Dark Justice on BTV, Tonight at 9:00

Dark Justice
Rick Baggs (STEPHEN ROOT) is a wealthy, unscrupulous dealer in collectible baseball cards and other sports mementos. When teenager Danny Lo Presti (BLAKE SOPER) finds a baseball trading card worth $250,000, this father tries to sell it to Baggs. Baggs kills him for it.

Lack of evidence prevents Judge Nicholas "Nick" Marshall (BRUCE ABBOTT) from convicting Baggs of murder. But Nick is deter-ters into his own hands, confronting Baggs at his store. Brandishing a gun, Danny forces Baggs to give him the valuable card, which is hidden in a locker inside the local stadium. There, Baggs knocks the gun from Danny's hand and pulls out his own. Fortunately, Nick has followed Danny and the card to safety. Seconds later, Tim and Laura arrive on the scene and kill Baggs during a fight.

Princess Di in Panorama on BBC World, Tuesday at 3:40 am

Highlights

Princess Diana talks to Star TV viewers on BBC World

Star TV viewers will get the premiere opportunity to watch the first ever solo interview given by Princess Diana on BBC-1 in the United Kingdom and BBC World, it will air on Tuesday, November 21st at 03:40 BST. The repeat of this interview is at 18:05 BST on the same day, says a press release.

The hour-long interview will cover every stage of her life as the Princess of Wales, including her family, separation from Prince Charles and her future plans. Panorama reporter Martin Bashir had conversations with the Princess over a period of several months as part of a broader enquiry into the constitutional position of the British Monarchy.

When she agreed to be interviewed, the Princess placed no constraints on the subject matter or the duration of the interview, which took place at Kensington Palace in London earlier this month. It is expected that the interview will spark off further controversy as a publicity war between the estranged royal couple raged after the frank revelations Prince Charles made on television 18 months ago.

The World Report Special: Diana The Interview will follow the first showing of Panorama on Tuesday, November 21st at 04:40 BST and include key clips from the interview, expert reaction and discussion of the likely consequences.

In The World Debate: Charles and Diana, to be aired on Tuesday, November 21 at 21:05 BST and on Wednesday, November 22 at 18:05 BST Diana's comments will be examined in detail by host Donald MacComick and a panel of royal watchers, constitutional experts and the BBC Court Correspondent.
