Dr Milon's mother meets PM

Selina Akhtar, mother of Shaheed Dr Shamsul Alam Khan Milon, yesterday called on Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia at her office, reports BSS.

Dr Milon was killed by the armed hooligans of autocracy on November 27, 1990 near the Teachers' Student Centre (TSC), Dhaka University.

Selina Akhtar expressed her gratitude to the Prime Minister for recognising the contribution of Dr Milon in the anti-autocracy movement.

The Prime Minister enquired about the welfare of the wife and daughter of Shaheed Milon.

Commemorative postal stamps were released on him while an auditorium is being constructed at Dhaka Medical College Hospital which will be named after Dr Milon. DUCSU VP Amanullah Aman was present.

Pollution: Legal notices on soap factory, others

By Staff Correspondent

The Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers' Association (BELA) has served legal notices on the Mayor, Dhaka City Corporation (DCC), the Director General, Department of Environment (DOE), the Chief Inspector of Factories and Establishments, the Managing Director of Commerce Overseas Limited, a soap manufacturing company and the owner of a house at Road No 11 at Dhanmondi residential area for allegedly causing environmental hazard by storing detergent and soap at its premises, says a BELA press release.

It was stated in the notices, served on November 23, that the company has been doing production and pre-marketing activities of its soap and detergent bearing trade name, NIRMA in a godown at the premises of the house, according to a DOE report.

Discharge of waste products is polluting the surrounding air and the soil causing various environmental and health hazards.

The DOE had earlier inspected the premises on complaints from the residents and directed the company to remove the godown from the area immediately. But the company continued the activities defying the directives, the BELA press release said.
