According to physicians, most of the venereal disease patients have got a tendency to conceal the disease as they are illiterate and consequently suffer without undergoing any treatment.

After sun down, the gays come out on streets to look for the clients. A middle aged woman at Laldighi area in the town is said to be acting as pimp. December 7, a red-letter day in the history of Jhenidah

From Delwar Kabir

JHENIDAH, Dec 6: December 7 in the red-letter day in the history of our Liberation War. On this day Jhenidah district was freed from the group of Pak armies and their collaborators. During Liberation War,

1971, various battles were fought between Freedom Fighters (FFs) and Pakistani forces at different places of the district (the then Sub-Division). On August 29, 1971 about 300 Pak armies marched towards Alfapur in Sailkupa thana of the district in order to attack the FFs staying there. The FFs, informed earlier, dug trenches near Alfapur so as to face them. The Pak armies and their collaborators reached Alfapur on early morning and failing to find FFs set ablaze the houses in the villagers. Hundreds of innocent villagers residence were gutted. The Pak armies then marched towards Kumra river and while crossing a cannel at around noon was attacked by Qamruzzaman Khushu, Aminul Islam Chand, Abdul Karim, Abdus Satter, Sajedur Rahman, Farid Reza, Shamser Ali, Barik, Kawser, Alam, Surja, Rannu and others lead by Rahmat Ali Mantu shattered lives of about 100 Pak soldiers and their collaborators.

On October 13, FFs were informed that about 500 Pak armies with their collaborators were marching from Sreepur thana of Magura district towards Sailkupa. The FFs then formed three separate groups and took shelter in three places led by Manwar Hossain, Shaid Nazrul and Golam Rais. In their fought with Pak armies about 41 FFs. November.

Early December Mohespur, Kotchandpur and Kaliganj thanas were captured by the Freedom Fighters with the kind help of the allied forces. The FFs attacked Harinakundu thana in the night of December 4 and captured the thana within half an hour. The battle was led by Retd Havilder Abdur Rahman.

On December 6 the allied forces as well as the FFs were attacked by the Pak Army. About 150 allied forces were killed there. Then a contingent of artillery forces reached the spot. Even some trained forces were landed from the aircraft of allied forces through parachute. The FFs and the allied forces began a mass attack on the occupied Pak army with modern weapons. A good number of them were killed by the FFs during gun battle. Finding no other alternative the occupiers began to flee towards Magura. Jhenidah town was then free from the Pak Armies and ultimately came under the capture of retreat from Jhenidah town, the armies set fire at the Primary Training Institute (PTI) which had been used as for storing food for them.

After the fall of Jhenidah town the FFs marched towards Sailkupa thana which was a strong protection centre for the Pakistani forces. More than 1,000 FFs and allied forces gathered at Sailkupa and took possessions of different places of the thana headquarter on December 7. At about 4 pm the FFs began to attack. A group of FFs jointly led by Abu Ahmed Sona Mollah and Golam Mustafa took possession at Kabirpur, Rahmat Ali Mantu stood in the eastern side of Sailkupa and Ostad Bisharat Ali and Joha stood in the northern side of Sailkupa.

Ashraful Alam and Dabir Uddin Joarder stood in the western side of Sailkupa. The battle lasted for 28 hours. At one stage Captain Jubery, the In-Charge of Sailkupa Army Camp managed to flee in the night predicting their certain defeat At least 50 Pak Armies and their collaborators were caught by the FFs and handed over to the allied forces. The long cherished independence at last be came reality on December 7 and the flag of Swadhin Banla was hoisted at the top of the houses, offices and all other corners of Sailkupa.
