and killer tidal waves.

The never-ending struggle for survival and the constant battle against a cruel nature of the people who live on the coastal areas of Bangladesh, will be the central theme of the next film by the maker of the internationally acclaimed short film "Chaka" (The Wheel) "Dukhai," the forthcoming feature film by Morshedul Islam starts production at the end of January 1996. The film will be produced by Monon Chalachitra with financial assistance from Digital Media Lab (DML) of Japan.

The film, expected to be completed by September. deals with the life struggles of the central character "Dukhai."

Dukhai, means "sorrow," is an inhabitant of a "char" (a newly-formed strip of land rising out of the seal in the southern coastal region of Bangladesh.

Like his real-life counterparts. Dukhai is perpetually cked in battle with the held Monday at a city hotel.

whims of nature, that manifest themselves, from time to time as devastating cyclones

In the course of his harsh life, Dukhai loses everything twice. In the great cyclone of 1970, he loses his parents and siblings, as well as his home and land. Fifteen years later, the re-established and married Dukhai, loses his wife and beloved daughter. "Shukhai," named after "happiness." But just like any true "char" Denizen, Dukhai is ever resilient - with an endless lust for life.

For Dukhai, "life's dream never expires." Thus, despite the odds, he survives. Actor, Raisul Islam Asad will portray the title role. Director of the film Islam has written the script, based on eye-witness accounts.

"A film with such a subject matter has never been made before in this country." Islam said at a press conference.

Hubert Bals Fund of the Netherlands were the initial backer of the film. They were replaced by DML, a private Japanese multi-media company, after the completion of the script.

Representative of DML Uta Miyamoto and renowned Japanese film critic and writer. Tadao Sato, were present at the conference.

Sato, who was in the city Monday on a one-day visit, had recommended Islam to DML after viewing "Chaka" at a Japanese film festival.

"I believe "Chaka" is a new terpiece," said Sato, who confessed to having seen only two Bangladeshi movies. The other one is Rafigul Bari's "Pension."

Speaking on behalf of DML. Miyamoto said her company, founded in March, 1995, was committed to the financing of quality Asian films for a worldwide audi-

The movie will be shot mostly on location at Chorgangamoti near Kuwakata.
