Workshop on 'Global UN Teach In' begins

Need for link between edn and cultural heritage stressed

Education Minister Jamiruddin Sircar yesterday laid emphasis on establishing link between education and culture and heritage for developing human resources and nation building, reports BSS.

He said this while inaugurating a three-day workshop on 'Global UN Teach In' organised by Bangladesh National Commission for UNESCO at the auditorium of Bangladesh Institute of Administration and Management (BIAM) in the city.

Some 51 school teachers, education planners and NGO representatives are taking part in the workshop.

Sircar referred to the importance of UNESCO role for human resources development, particularly in the developing countries, and warned that if the job could not be done properly, a severe conflict between the developed and undeveloped countries would be inevitable.

Chaired by additional secretary of Education Ministry Shahidul Alam, the opening session of the workshop was also addressed by resident representative of UNDP Richard Dictus, Joint Secretary of Education Ministry Muhammad Khademul Islam and secretary of Bangladesh National Commission for UNESCO Kalim Uddin Ahmed.
