JU meal charges up again

By JU Correspondent

Dining fees for the students of the Jahangirnagar University (JU) have been increased by fifty paise from today.

The students will now have to pay Tk. seven for each meal in the dining hall in place of earlier charge six taka and fifty paise.

A joint meeting of the student leaders, provosts of the halls with JU VC Prof Amrul Islam Chowdhury on Saturday last decided and approved it considering the price hike of essentials.

With this rise, meal charges at the dining halls have been increased twice in one year.
